

2. Made with organic soy wax, the Basics candle in Fresh Cut Grass ($28, canvashomestore.com) conjures the familiar scent withour anyone having to mow the lawn

3. These seeds of 'Green Envy.' an heirloom zinnia ($2.79 per packet, reneesgarden.com produce flowers in a bright, rarely seen shade of chartreuse

4. The smaller pieces of "foliage" on this handmade Leaves mobile ($375, hangingmobilegallery.com) represent new buds

5. Frame a Coconut Palm letterpress specimen print ($10, mossiere.com) to add botanical charm to any space

6. Printed from an original collage made with vintage magazines, the Urubbu co (#362, $4.25, greerchicago is a fresh way to greet fara... friends this spring.

7. With its graceful frond pa the Fern Garden pillow (b) Stewart, $50, macys.com refined and has a soothing

8. Leaf-It sticky notes (in ... $7. floragrubb.com) stay p bookmarks and give the usu memos a sprightly new feel

9. Still too cold to entertain conside? The trellis-pattern Espalier porceiain dinnerware by Charlotte Moss for Pickard ($225 for a 5-piece setting. pickardchina.com) brings a little bit of the garden to the table.

10. Time for an outdoor siesta. The retro-modern Acapulco chair ($475, innitdesigns.com) was inspired by Mayan hammock weaving. Made with durable viny cords, it's easy to keep clean

11. These 100 percent wool Arbor felt coasters ($9 each, teroforma .com) are double-sided and can also function as napkin rings.

12. Made from hand-printed textiles. the Sprout and Vine tea towels ($42 for a set of 2, studiopatro.com) give afternoon tea and snack settings a casual elegance; the absorbent linen-cotton blend makes them practical in the kitchen