18. Jewel Cafe and Bar

Jewel Cafe is a another specialty coffee house that roasts their own beans with precision at the back of the cafe, as well as regularly hold coffee cupping sessions to taste single origin beans and their unique characteristics. It was very enlightening having a look at their coffee roasting machine at the back of the shop as well, where the owner passionately explains the different stages of coffee roasting and the precision used.

Most of their retail coffee is of single origin from countries like El Salvador, Ethiopia, Brazil and Sumatra, although they do have blends as well like the Alpha Red Blend. Every 2-3 days, Jewel will change the beans in the machine hopper so the taste profile constantly switches around every now and then.
