Jewel Cafe and Bar - Rachael Boon, business reporter

Amid Singapore's crowded caffeine scene, Jewel Cafe and Bar (above) has carved out a coveted reputation for serving stellar coffee. One of its main highlights is its affogato – Jewel surprises by having the ice cream sit on a bed of biscuit crumbs. The 80-seater also serves hearty meals and an unconventional set of dishes. Healthier choices include the fish tacos with sour-cream mayo, or try starters like the Shio-Koji Octopoke, which is octopus tossed in shio-koji (fermented rice and salt seasoning) and wasabi.
