

MODERN LUXURY

Interiors

NEW YORK

BEST OF DESIGN

NYC'S TOP TALENTS,
SHOWROOMS & SOURCES
TO KNOW NOW

THE REAL
DEAL
THE MOST SPECTACULAR
LISTINGS TO CALL HOME

THE LATEST
LAUNCHES,
SHOWROOMS &
TRENDS

Living in New York

- 19 Spotlight En vogue brand Diptyque is paying homage to its beginnings with its first collection of 10 wallpaper designs pulled from the archives.
- 20 New & Notable New collections and out-of-the-box experiences offer much design inspiration this season.
- 24 Showrooms Take a peek inside NYC's new and reimagined showrooms for a taste of how to touch up the home this season.
- 28 Arbiter Fresh off her launch with Net-A-Porter, Nour Al Nimer, founder of luxury homeware label Nimerology, shares her edit for hosting a transportive dining experience.
- 30 Designer Picks Interior designer Scot Meacham Wood curates a selection of picks that add a dash of whimsy to the home.
- 32 Designer Picks Wendy King Philips of Interlude Home shares her curation of striking neutrals to outfit the home.
- 34 Launch Maker&Son, the company dedicated to creating sofas that last a lifetime, is hitting the road with mobile showrooms across the U.S.
- 36 Art News Legendary architect and longtime Hamptons resident Peter Marino breathes new life into one of Southampton's historic buildings to create a home for his eclectic personal art collection—and to further the cultural conversation out East.
- 39 Interior Monologue Manhattan- and Montauk-based interiors icon Nate Berkus shares an inside look at his beautifully designed life.
- 40 Design By the hands of staging firm LTW Design's team, this grandiose Bedford abode emerged a stunning modern oasis.
- 46 In Bloom The self-made founder and floral designer Kelsea Olivia of East Olivia spills how she made her roots and surprising lessons along the way.
- 48 Collab Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams partners with New York-based textile designer Eskayel to unveil an artful debut line of wallpaper.

DESTINATION DINING

Fresh off her launch with Net-A-Porter, Nour Al Nimer, founder of luxury homeware label Nimerology (nimerology.com), is driven by wanderlust. The brand was born from it and shaped by her passion for design, contemporary art and food. Through her travels, she's amassed an eclectic collection of hidden gems from near and far—here, Al Nimer's edit for hosting a transporative dining experience.

By Lauren Brocato

"This chandelier is playful, dreamy and magical. This otherworldly light can make any room feel as though you are being transported to outer space." Yuko Nishikawa You See a Sheep chandelier, yukonishikawa.com

"Hans Harald Rath designed the Alpha set in 1952. They have a beautiful balance to them that make them easy to hold, fitting perfectly in your hand. The shape was inspired by a Baroque copper cup from the collections of the MAK Vienna, and reflect the lifestyle of the '50s. I love that these glasses take you back in history!" Drinking Set 267: Alpha, J. & L. Lobmeyr Collection, erbutler.com

"This mushroom placeholder from Buccellati is so charming and adds a fantastical element to the table. I love to try and imbue elements of nature to the table, bringing the outdoors in." Buccellati mushroom placeholder, buccellati.com

"All of the jam jars from Buccellati are so beautiful. [The] apple and tomato jam jars are lighthearted and put a smile on my face. It's nice to have a bit of humor at the table, and it's a great conversation starter." Buccellati green apple jam jar, buccellati.com

"In our I Left My Heart in Mexico II collection, the designs are inspired by Mexican textiles and sculptures made clear through the earthy colors of deep blue, teal and maroon. The plates are embroidered with flowers and animals in black and platinum, highlighting Nour's fascination with nature." Nimerology I Left My Heart in Mexico II, nimerology.com