The Untold Story

2021 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Betz Family of Wines crafts The Untold Story from some of the most famous vineyards in Washington, showcasing the world-class character of the state's Cabernet Sauvignon. Since its initial release supporting local charities during the pandemic, it's been a call to action: be bold and courageous in pursuing your dreams, and don't capitulate. Push the envelope and never give up. Choose camaraderie and community in the face of adversity, and never say "If only". Live in a state of possibility and take inspired action.

"What can be thought of as the second wine of Betz, the 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon The Untold Story is a smoking wine that readers should jump on. Black currants, blueberries, tobacco, truffle, and spicy oak notes define its bouquet, and it's medium to full-bodied, with a seamless, elegant mouthfeel, good acidity, and fine tannins. It's almost too good and too serious at the price."
