product Radia
standout The New York designer's collection of stone-topped teak nesting tables, their legs taking the form of ship rudders, was inspired by brand founder David Sutherland's nautical passions. sutherlandfurniture.com product Lifesaver

standout Bikoff's fearless interiors, awash in riotous color, translate well to a mod armchair, its distinctive platform bases featuring rounded corners and neat rows of circular perforations. walterswicker.com product Oliver

standout Inspired by the wicker bucket seats of a 1964 Fiat Jolly, the L.A. hospitality designer devised a likeminded outdoor lounge in handwoven rope, cradled by an angular frame and topped with plush cushions. brownjordan.com product Outbounds

standout "From the rocky shores of Carmel to the canopied forests of Big Sur, we drew on inspiration close to home," the California designer says of her solution-dyed acrylics, ideal for coastal homes, gardens, and boat interiors. brookperdigontextiles.com
