Reconnection

Nicole is an abstract artist who paints intuitively, drawing from her formal university studies in design where she gained a sound understanding of colour, balance and form.

After graduating in 2008, Nicole worked as an Interior Designer for an award-winning architecture firm in Adelaide. She then moved to Melbourne in 2011 and turned her focus to art. She has recently returned to the Barossa area to reconnect with family and friends.

Nicole's artworks are influenced by nature and emotion and are a balance of contrasting elements - both delicate and bold. Her aesthetic is underpinned by the richness of authentic layers, combined with the playfulness of line.

The artworks in this collection are an abstract representation of Nicole's recent lived experiences - of reforming old connections, making new connections and the intertwinement of the two.
