Whether you're a service or retail, B2B or B2C, introducing plants to any workspace is proven to have a positive impact.

If nothing else, plants are visually pleasing but they also create a calm and inviting environment, while reducing stress and producing good oxygen. In today's world, adding plants will show your company in a caring light to both your team and your clients.

In this simple guide, we'll explain these specific benefits a little further, before laying out our services which make this a simple step for your workspace.

1 Boosted Productivity

Studies consistently show that the introduction of plants in the workplace can lead to a significant increase in employee productivity. Greenery has a calming effect, reducing stress levels and enhancing focus, resulting in more efficient and effective work.

2 Improved Air Quality

Plants act as natural air purifiers, removing toxins and pollutants from the air. This not only contributes to a healthier environment but can also reduce absenteeism and improve overall employee well-being.

3 Enhanced Creativity

The presence of plants has been linked to increased creativity and problem-solving skills. A touch of nature in the workspace can inspire fresh ideas and innovative thinking among your team.

4 Increased Morale

Creating a visually appealing and vibrant workspace with plants can have a positive impact on employee morale. It shows that you care about their well-being and are invested in creating a pleasant and enjoyable work environment.

5 Noise Reduction

Certain plants have the added benefit of absorbing sound, helping to create a more peaceful and focused atmosphere. This can be particularly beneficial in open-office environments where minimizing distractions is crucial.

Our Installation Services

Here at Gro, we're forever championing this cost effective way of breathing new life into your workplace.

Not only will you benefit from a personal service so you don't have to DIY it, our prices are often better than if you source items yourself, working with wholesalers in both the UK and the Netherlands.

- Plant & Pot Installations, for any budget
- Self Watering Pots
- Zero Maintenance Moss Walls
- No-Obligation Site Visit / Quote
- Ongoing Maintenance / Champion Training

Your installation couldn't be easier:

1

Get in touch and we'll arrange a good time to come and see your workplace, chat budget and throw some ideas around.

2

If you're happy to proceed further, we'll go away for a few days and put those ideas together for you in the form of a rough mockup, along with a no-obligation quote and timescales for installation.

3

We'll give you some time to consider. If you'd like to adjust the budget, we can work on alternative suggestions. To go ahead, we'd just require a 50% deposit and approx 28 days for order and installation.

Other Business Benefits

Corporate Membership

As well as our own installations and services as detailed above, we can offer your business a low-cost benefits package that provides your individual team members with a great perk.
