Curly Crow adventure books - Spark your imagination and creativity

Curly Crow is a children's book series based on a cute crow character with curly hair who lives in New Mexico and engages in life adventures to solve problems in a way that teaches character-affirming lessons in entertaining and memorable ways. Every child deserves story time with people they love to create beloved childhood memories and cultivate a life-long love for reading.

Curly Crow is here to help every child to develop a love for reading. As the excitement for reading grows with each book, so will their vocabulary and cognitive development, fostering life-long skills of reading and academic success. Reading is the foundation of learning, and we want to make it easy for your child to have access to great books that they will read over and over again.

Children's Book Author Nicholas Aragon

Nicholas Aragon is the author of the Curly Crow children's book series. Inspired by his mother's love for art and reading, Nicholas started Curly Crow LLC with a mission to inspire and heal the human spirit through art and books. Before he started writing children's books, Nicholas completed a graduate degree in Higher Education Administration at NMSU. After that, just to shake things up, he started an online business where he sells Curly Crow Children's Books, Art, and Apparel. In addition to writing amazing children's books, Nicholas works full time in Higher Education where he satisfies his passion to help change lives one student at a time.
