

Warranty policy

All Enkel products are subject to a lifetime warranty period. The Enkel warranty covers your pieces against manufacturing defects from the date the product was purchased.

To claim a warranty, please email us or contact Haworth customer service for further information.

Enkel was built in 2020 when the world resorted to working from home. Our founders felt that there was a missing piece in the workspace industry—products that brought life to your workspace and inspired more productivity.

Built to last, designed to inspire.

No more battle stations with all black or silver gear! We're here to warm up your workspaces and create more inspiring and stress-relieving environment. Oh yeah, our Birch wood products are super strong to boot ;)

Function AND form

Our products are designed with both function AND form in mind. From the wire organizer opening on the back of our Birch Wood Laptop Stand, to thick, non-bleed paper products—we're obsessed with making your life easier (and more organized!)

Simple, clean, always

Who likes big logos and obnoxious branding in their workspace? Choose subtle, minimal pieces that will never distract you from your work (we're talking about ourselves!)
