"Trading Treasures"

Check TimCox.com for Availability or call 505-632-8080

This painting features cowboys in camp "Trading Treasures", and they are TRUE collectibles since many of the items, like Ernie Marsh's Hummingbird Spade Bit, Wilson Capron's Longhorn Spurs and Tim's prize Presidential CA bit that is on the Cary Schwarz and Scott Hardy headstall that the two guys are holding. Tim even put a Rawhide Reata, Braided Rawhide Belt, Romal and Reins by Pablo Lozano on that headstall. The popper on Pablo's reins was made by Cary Schwarz.

Dear Friends,

Each year, fall brings our catalog with our newest releases. I had been wanting Tim to paint "Cloud Watchers" and now we have made prints of it. We also now have the Giclée edition of "A Storm Across the Valley". I love the pop of the yellow slicker against the dark blue thunderclouds. We also chose to add a Super Size Giclée of "Maybe It Will Be a Good Year".

Tim was honored with being the poster artist for the 50th Annual Cowboy Artists of America Art Show and Celebration at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum.

The painting features cowboys in camp "Trading Treasures", and they are TRUE collectibles since many of the items, like Ernie Marsh's Hummingbird Spade Bit, Wilson Capron's Longhorn Spurs and Tim's prize Presidential CA bit that is on the Cary Schwarz and Scott Hardy headstall that the two guys are holding. Tim even put a Rawhide Reata, Braided Rawhide Belt, Romal and Reins by Pablo Lozano on that headstall. The popper on Pablo's reins was made by Cary Schwarz. All of these items are made by the Traditional Cowboy Arts Association members, who are also featured in Cowboy Crossings with the CA's. Other items are our own antique Kelly Steer Head - Arrow Shanked Spurs, Tim's new Jim Gregory saddle on the front horse, chaps on the ground are by Calla Cox Mackey, and the Hereford Bull Head Silver Spurs overlay are Kellys as well. The guys sitting on the ground are holding a Billy Klapper 27 that I gave to Tim for Christmas.

People ask for gift items, or framed pieces for auctions and fundraisers. We have a lot of images that can be put in a 12" X 16" frame. The mini canvases of open editions "Sorrels in the Sun", "Face to Face", "Racing Sundown", "Horses of the Creek", "Twilight", "Western Skies", "Fresh Mounts" and "Their Turn to Rest" are all $130. We have Limited Editions of that size as well for "Whassup", "Spring", "Who Dat?", and "Cardoza Cowboys" which are $175 each. Add a frame to any of these 12" X 16" images for $195!

When we first went to visit our friends Bill and Valerie Owen, I was struck by some little accent pieces that she had made from their 5" X 7" greeting cards on canvas which hung alongside all of his amazing large works. We searched and searched to find some perfect small frames to use with a selection of Tim's images that we are calling "Art Babies". These are perfect alone in a small space or grouped with each other or another full size framed edition. We will sell these for $195 each framed.

If these do well, check back for us to add more selections to all time favorites "The Final Cut", "Heading for the Heels", "Between Heaven & Earth", "Horses of the Creek", "Good Neighbors" and "A Storm Across the Valley".

Well, our granddaughter CJ is burning up arenas all over the middle of Oklahoma. She and her new horse, Kate, that she and Carmin trained for barrels, are cleaning up at junior rodeos and barrel races. They even won their first buckle this year. Carmin has been running in a few shows herself, along with working for us in the business. Jake and Dr. Joe Noble have been growing Noble Equine Veterinary Services like crazy. Jake and Carmin enjoy watching CJ's basketball team play. They were unbeatable again this year.

Calla and Justin bought a beautiful new house, just up the road from us. She is expanding her leather and beading businesses in addition to taking care of the place for us. Justin has a great new job where he hasn't had to leave home much and he gets to weld all of the time.

What is the difference between an Artist Proof and a Canvas Transfer?

We are asked this question often. Signed Open Editions and Posters can be reprinted over and over. A Limited Edition has a preset number of signed and numbered prints. Artist Proofs are the artist's personal prints that are given to him as part of the printing - usually 10% of the edition. There is no physical difference between the Artist Proofs and the Limited Edition. They are considered more collectable and are valued higher both initially and later on. (Collector's Tip - Over a period of time, Limited Editions, Artist Proofs and the Canvas Transfers of these have a greater chance of appreciating in value than posters or open edition prints.)

We make a canvas transfer by sending an existing Open Edition, Poster, Limited Edition, or Artist Proof to California. There they put the paper print into a special solution that soaks away the paper. They apply the film of ink that is left to a specially prepared, stretched canvas. These look very much like an original when you put them in a frame like we put an original in - they don't require matting or glass. They are about the same size as the print we made them from. These are my favorites. They are great looking and very durable.
