FINE ART

CATALOG 2022-2023

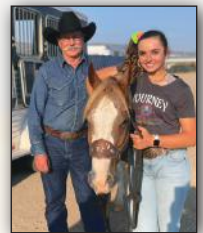

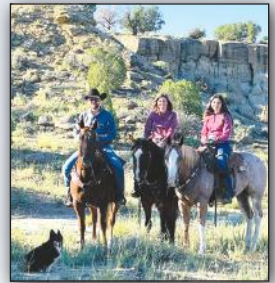

"Morning Reflections"

Hello! This has been a very eventful year for us! Tim was the chosen recipient for 2022 of “The Rounders Award” which is named after “The Rounders,” a classic western novel written by New Mexican Max Evans. Created in 1990 by former New Mexico Secretary of Agriculture Frank DuBois, the purpose of the award is to honor those who live, promote and articulate the western way of life. New Mexico Secretary of Agriculture, Jeff Witte presents the awards. All past recipients are invited; many stories are shared, and the legacy of New Mexican culture is celebrated.

Jake, Carmin and CJ still live in Eagle Mountain, UT where Jake is going into his twelfth year as an Equine Veterinarian specializing in equine reproduction and overall general equine medicine with South Valley Equine Hospital in Saratoga Springs. Carmin continues to work full time for the art business, focusing on marketing, website and social media. CJ is in her sophomore year of high school and has had quite the year of challenges. She sustained a scary concussion that kept her out of school over six weeks. After two months of neural and vision therapy she was released back to basketball and barrel racing. She was playing at the varsity level in both club and high school basketball when she sustained an ACL and meniscus tear requiring surgery and intensive rehab. She has spent the last 6 months working very hard to make it back for the 2022-23 basketball season.

Calla and Justin surprised us with another grandchild, dark hair and blue-eyed, Clay James. He kept trying to come early and finally did (by three weeks) just like his brother, blonde hair and blue-eyed Russell. We had to air flight Calla to Albuquerque and we very nearly lost her in childbirth. Calla bounded back to riding and running some barrels on new horses. Justin is a Superintendent for Sierra Oilfield Services and is picking up lots of new jobs for them, which is amazing with how slow the oil field has been.

Open & Limited Editions, Artist Proofs, Canvases & Giclées

Signed Open Editions and Posters can be reprinted over and over and are more affordable. A Limited Edition has a preset number of signed and numbered prints. Artist Proofs are the artist's personal prints that are given to him as part of the printing - usually 10% of the edition. There is no physical difference between the Limited Editions and Artist Proofs. However, the Artist Proofs are considered more collectable and are valued higher both initially and later on.

Giclées are museum quality reproductions on canvas or paper, which are printed using pigmented inks on archival canvas or on 100% acid free cotton rag paper. Longevity tests show the inks we use to be colorfast for 120 years.

Canvases and Giclées make a great purchase because you do not have to frame them right away. While they are initially more expensive, you can wait to frame later and don't need to use glass, so the actual framing is cheaper. Also, when you do add a frame, like our barnwood frame, it looks a lot like an original.

We have our very own print shop, publishing and printing Tim's reproductions. We use a high-quality printer to create reproductions of Tim's work and have full quality control, taking great pride in our 100% family run, made-in-the-USA business.

Collector's Tip

Over a period of time, Limited Editions, Artist Proofs, Canvases and Giclées have a greater chance of appreciating in value than the more affordable Posters and Open Edition Prints.

Guess who is tending these little guys? Krista, Shay and I are! Don't be surprised if you hear babies in the background when you call!

We have been selling a few original Tim Cox paintings for our collectors. Check for available artwork on the Originals link on the website.

We'll be glad to load our specially made boxes full of art, professionally packaged and send it right to you. AND, we are offering a savings of 10%! Use code "2022". Also, check our home page at TimCox.com for all of the latest bargains. They might be even better than 10% off!

I hope to hear from you soon! Please feel free to leave a detailed message if we miss your call. We try to have someone here 9-5, MST, Monday through Friday. “The mountain on the distant skyline is known as the Sleeping Ute. It is located in Southwest Colorado. I had the opportunity to help gather the cattle off the summer range on this ranch. The legend of the mountain is that a great warrior lay down to rest from his battles and fell asleep. His body turned into the mountain and the blood from his wounds became the rivers and streams that nourish life today.”

*“This cowboy has seen some lean times getting by on what is available, with a braided baling twine piggin' string, a canvas belting breast collar, hand-made hobbles on his saddle and around his horse's neck. A makeshift canvas bag is about to give out as his fencing pliers are starting to wear through. Even the turkey feather in his well-worn hat is frayed, but there is hope as rays of light shine through the storm clouds. Green grass and spring flowers are coming. “I thought of something my grandmother, a rancher’s daughter, told me when I was a boy. With love and longing in her eyes, she said that she missed how she felt when she would ride her horse full-out, running, flying, the wind blowing through her hair, the feeling of complete freedom. I thought of my granddaughter and how she loves to ride and race her horse ‘Glory’. I think that ‘Glorious Freedom’ is something a lot of us would enjoy feeling.”

“Every ranch I have ever been on since I was a kid the young cowboys complain about the ‘long days and short pay’. I am sure the horses feel the same way. Then there are the cowboys that have figured out that it is not about the money. It is about the moments, the beauty and peace of riding out to meet a new morning, seeing a newborn calf or foal, the freedom of the open spaces, glorious sunsets, the satisfaction of a job well done and all life’s little pleasures, make it worthwhile.”
