ABOUT QUA

The journey of Qua began from a trip to Vietnam in 2002, where the founder Meng Yee was mesmerized by the high-quality craftsmanship of a particular workshop that she was at – whom we work closely with till date. Embracing the partnership and where the idea took root, the name “Qua” is inspired by an abbreviation of 'gifts' in Vietnamese. Qua was born from the desire to breathe meaning into gifting, and as a brand, it is synonymous with meticulous artistry which crafts distinctive lacquerware that lasts generations.

Chinese New Year

MODERN HOME

Lunar New Year decorations don't always have to be loud, garish and traditional. The modern homeowner has options today that allow you to embrace the festivities while holding onto clean and sleek aesthetic values.

GINKGO SYMPHONY

The ginkgo leaf, with two split lobes shaped like a heart and a graceful stalk, has often been interpreted in various art and murals for centuries. In the Asian culture, it symbolises longevity, vitality, and resilience. More significantly, it is a powerful symbol of hope – for it has survived the ice age and continued to flourish in all conditions.

The design process began with hand-drawn watercolor sketches of individual ginkgo leaves, capturing the fine details and vein-like patterns in a delicate way. This allowed the artists to study the natural beauty and complexity of each leaf up close. The sketches were then translated into digital line art, bringing more precision to cleanly define the lobes and stalk of each leaf.

In The Ginkgo Symphony, the finely drawn ginkgo leaves that are then carefully applied with gold foil, floating against a backdrop of glossy, luscious muted blue or vibrant red lacquer. The spirit of ginkgo carries through each lacquerware, with an enduring message of resilience and longevity.

Usher in the Chinese New Year with well wishes of robust health, fortune and prosperous new beginnings. With this collection, we are introducing a special Serving Tea Box that is designed to hold snacks, serve tea, and which also doubles up as a storage box. The tissue box, trinket box and serving tray are crowd favourites, especially essential for those who are welcoming guests into their homes this festive season.

SHOPHOUSE BLESSINGS

Qua x SCENE SHANG presents the Shophouse Blessings Series, inspired by Singapore's rich history and heritage found in shophouses. These desk organisers feature the key design elements of a Singaporean shophouse, namely – the facade, which is richly decorated with elements drawn from a mix of cultures across East and West; the side elevation, which features a pitched roof for our rainy weather, the five-foot way, designed to give passage to the community in all weather; and the slanted structure, which was done to cleverly take advantage of the maximum area when aligning the front facades along roads, as well as the back for the back lanes.

In our Singapore Shophouse Blessings Series, we have included the characters in Chinese that are used to wish blessings upon the receiver, which can also be found on windows and doors of shophouses in Singapore. These elements of the facade together with the blessings are intricately painted with gold foil.

With the blessings '长发兴隆 - Always Thriving & Prosperous', '福乐安康 - Bliss, Joy, Peace, Health' and '和睦相处 - To Live in Harmony', this is the ideal practical gift to express your wishes while also serving as a keepsake.

SPRING IN BLOSSOM

Chinese New Year starts with spring flowers in blossom. The blossoms' transience, the extreme beauty and quick demise, is an enduring metaphor for the fleeting nature of life. Our Cherry Blossom collection has captured the beauty of this symbol. Every piece reflects life's beauty and wonders as symbolised by the Cherry Blossom, which our craftsmen had successfully infused into the collection.
