

Game Rules

Basic Rules

Curious cards come in three categories:
Connect, Feel, and Play.

The rules are simple: each category inspires better conversation & more intimate connection. The stakes get higher by getting out of your comfort zone and if the mood is right, out of your clothes.

So whether you're on a first date or hanging out with friends, this game guarantees provocative questions, unfiltered answers, and a generally wicked time. 😏

Be warned though! When curiosity wanders, there's no telling where the conversation might lead.

Select one card from each stack every turn. Play your hand. Shuffle cards after each game so it's fun everytime you play.

Game Rules

House Rules

1. Draw a card from each individual category every turn, starting from Connect-Feel-Play.
 2. Play your hand or have the other player choose their answer depending on the round.
 3. The goal is to break the ice and build intimacy so have fun!
 4. Warning: Play category is for consenting adults only comfort is key
 5. The consequence of skips is a round of the classic game of two truths and one lie about yourself.

Category: Connect

A. Ask Me Anything - Give the player time to go through their Instagram, or chosen social media account in order to choose photos from, message from, tag, and screenshot from, according to this category's plays.

B. Which Player - Select the player of the game that is most likely to have done the prompt. Whoever has been determined to have done the most prompts has to show the most embarrassing photo of themselves from their phone or a deleted photo of themselves from their "Recently Deleted" Folder.

C. Would You Rather - You have to choose between two difficult scenarios. No cop-outs!

D. Kiss Marry Kill - You must decide which one to kiss, to marry, and to kill (not literally). You can only choose each option once, so choose wisely!

E. True or False - Ask the other player to decipher if the statement is true or a lie. Answers can be found on our socials, under Quirious Game. If the answer is wrong, the player must yell out the first word that comes to mind.

Category: Feel

This category can get quite cheeky, so be prepared 😏

A. Superlatives/Who's Most Likely to - A player declares themselves the judge and reads a card aloud. Each person then says who in the group should be tagged with this card and why.

B. Prompt ____ - The player that draws this card must ask their fellow player of choice to answer the prompt.

C. Red Flag? - A player declares themselves the judge and reads a card aloud. Each player shall pronounce if the prompt is a red flag (a warning or bad omen to come in a relationship) or not and why.

D. Hot or Not - Decide if the prompt is hot (attractive) or not. To level up, drink every time you answer "Hot". [legal-aged drinkers advised]

Category: Play

Be warned this category is 🔥🔥. Let's keep it safe & sultry

INSTRUCTION: If you skip any questions you're in debt of a dare from the other player. 🐱

A. Quirious Taboo - This is the X-rated version of Truth from "Truth or Dare". Answer honestly! If you pass on the skip dare, you have to hold 15 seconds of eye contact with the other player.

B. Actions - This is the X-rated version of Dare from "Truth or Dare". If you pass on the skip dare, you have to try to lick your elbow for 10 seconds.

Consenting Players Only ***

C. Wildcard - This is sexy charades, so act out the prompt provided with an Oscar-worthy performance.
