

SCALP MASSAGER PRODUCT SHEET

It goes without saying that the best part of going to see a professional hairdresser is the scalp massage, right? It eases tension, increases blood flow, thus promoting oxygenation, nourishes the scalp, and just feels luxurious. However is that it's hard to replicate this on your own at home — that is unless you own a Silk Oil of Morocco Scalp massager brush

The Silk Oil of Morocco Stimulating Scalp brush Massager is a must for every scalp! It can be used on every hair type, even tightly coiled hair it can be used wet or dry!

With its easy-to-grip design and silicone tips, this massager provides a great massage, stimulating, and exfoliating your scalp. Often forgotten about the scalp is the bedrock for hair follicle growth, it is essential we pay more attention like we do our face to this important part of the hair growth journey.
