Brand Treatment in Copy
PERSONALITY

We are bold, provocative, and full of creative energy.

Proof points in copy should be smart and direct, with a hint of playfulness.

Avoid business jargon at most costs. But if and when you have to use business terms, try to soften them with something colloquial, casual, or funny.

We are a professional partner here to help brands get results. However, we are not business as usual. We’re the creative, fun, and modern side of any brand’s marketing budget.

At the top-of-funnel awareness level, we’ll have more liberty to express style, playfulness, and personality. While we might have to get more direct as we move down the funnel, don’t lose sight of tone. Aim to include hints of our personality—as long as it never clouds or obscures our conversion message.
Do

- Be confident yet humble
- Be playful
- Get to the point
- Keep it casual
- Write the way people talk
- Be provocative

Don’t

- Brag or act cocky
- Try too hard
- Forget to have some fun along the way
- Forget you’re talking to marketers who need results
- Write sloppy
- Be mean or derisive
TONE OF VOICE – LANGUAGE EXAMPLES

Do

- Make it big on a small biz budget and maximize ROI.
- Grow your audience. Grow your brand. Make graphs go up.
- TikTok is the place to unleash your brand’s creative side.

Don’t

- Hit the big time without spending a lot of dolla dolla billz, y’all.
- Increase your audience and brand share of voice.
- Time to ditch all the other apps. Only TikTok lets your brand be creative.

Full Name
TikTok For Business

When a non-logo version of our brand is required, i.e., in copy form, the full name of our brand should always be represented as shown above. This is to be the case for all consumer and public-facing instances. Note: Uppercase ‘F’ to be used at all times (For), as we should always treat the brand as a proper noun.

Abbreviations
TT4B OR TTFB

Abbreviations on our brand name are never to be public or consumer facing. Abbreviations are only allowed in the context of internal communications.

Logo Lockups

Optical kerning, refined weight, defined clear space, and two lockups help to make the logo instantly recognizable at all sizes and in all contexts.

Horizontal
The horizontal lockup option is our primary and preferred option for most applications.

Vertical
The vertical lockup option is our secondary option and best used in tight or vertically oriented applications such as portrait oriented business cards, social icons, 9x16 vertical video, etc.
Social Lockups

For extra small applications where the TikTok For Business logotype is illegible, the two circles can be leveraged as an icon.

Rules
The two circles can be used as an icon only if TikTok For Business also appears on the page, such as a social media icon with the profile handle next to the icon.
Color Variations

The logo exists in four color variations to enhance legibility on different backgrounds.

Full-Color
Full-color logo should only be used on black or white backgrounds. Logo should be white on dark backgrounds and black on light backgrounds.

Monochrome
Monochrome variations exist for when a simpler solution is needed.

Black and white logos can be used on Razzmatazz background.

Do not use white logo on Splash background.
Design System - Logo

Scale

Our logo is designed to scale to small sizes on print and screen. Two orientations have been provided to accommodate for portrait and landscape-oriented applications.

Horizontal Smallest Size
- 5px tall (.07in, .2mm).

Vertical Smallest Size
- 14px tall (.2in, 5mm).
DESIGN SYSTEM - LOGO

Clearspace

Clearspace around the logo is equal to the cap height of the “T” for both horizontal and vertical logo lockups.
Partnerships

Aligning partnership logos should follow clearspace rules. The separating line between logos can be created using the vertical line glyph in the Sofia Pro Bold typeface at the same font size as the logotype.
Partnerships

Approved Horizontal Logo Placement

Approved Vertical Logo Placement
Top left, bottom left, center, top right, bottom right.

Exceptions
When approved logo placements cannot be met, follow clearspace and minimum scale guidelines for maximum accessibility.
DESIGN SYSTEM - LOGO

Rotation

The logo may be rotated to add a level of playfulness. When rotating the logo, it must be done in 10-degree increments and never end up upside down.

When rotating the logo vertically (90°), it should be placed with “TikTok” at the bottom to visually ground the logo.
Logo Animation

Follow color, scale, clearspace, placement, and rotation guidelines when animating the TikTok For Business logo.

Movement should feel efficient, smooth, and fun.

Use motion blur, rotation, and scale animation properties to add fluidity.

Things To Avoid
• Do not add effects like drop shadows & gradients.
• Do not distort or manipulate the logo on end states. Glitch effects and squash and stretch are acceptable during transition states.

Tool Kit Overview

Our design tool kit is composed of four core elements: rounded rectangles, bubbles, patterns, and emphasis marks.

These elements are designed to be used in conjunction with the brand logo, color, typography, and imagery.

The shapes have been derived from the two circles in the TikTok logo. They tie back to the TikTok brand while allowing for playfulness and creativity.
Bubbles

The bubble elements were derived from the two circles in the TikTok For Business logo. The circles have been extended, forming a rounded rectangle shape, in order to hold words.

Variations
This element has a fill and stroke variation in Splash, Razzmatazz, and Black.

Use
The bubbles are primarily used as a call to action (CTA) across digital assets. This element can also be used to add emphasis on print assets.

Size/Scale
Digital minimum size: 30px.
Print minimum size: .2in.
Rounded Rectangles

Variation
This element has a fill and stroke variation in Splash, Razzmatazz, Black and White.

Roundness
Roundness is limited to 25%, 50%, and 100%.

Use
The primary use is for image masks with a colored border. Rounded rectangles can stretch to accommodate image height/width.

Rounded rectangles can also be used as graphic elements and backgrounds by layering the different shapes. Elements should be stacked using different colors to create focus.

Applications

- Business Card
- Website
- Graphics

Curve proportion is limited to 25%, 50%, and 100% roundness.

Up to two different curve proportions may be used in the same element.
DESIGN TOOL KIT

Rounded Rectangles

Primary Use
Reserve the use of the rounded rectangle with 100% roundness to call-to-action buttons on digital.

Secondary Use
Reserve the use of the rounded rectangle with 100% roundness for adding emphasis in print applications.

Graphic Element Rules
Make sure to layer rounded rectangle with 100% roundness with other shapes when using as a graphic element. Do not use this specific rounded rectangle by itself.
Patterns

The pattern design elements are derived from the circles in the TikTok For Business logo. The patterns add a level of playfulness and creativity while tying back to the TikTok brand.

Use

Patterns are used to bring visual interest to compositions as graphic elements. Patterns can be used as background elements or to divide and organize content. Patterns can be used full bleed or masked within.

Patterns may be used on backgrounds that provide high contrast (i.e., black or white) to aid in accessibility.

Patterns may be used on Splash or Razzmatazz backgrounds if the patterns do not include those colors to maintain legibility and accessibility.
Pattern Application

The pattern placement depends on the type of communication. It should be used creatively and bring visual interest to compositions while following minimum size and accessibility requirements.

Things to Do
• Use patterns on high contrast backgrounds.
• Use patterns to divide content and create flow.

Things To Avoid
• Do not place patterns on top of images.
• Do not place patterns on competing colors.
• Do not place pattern on similar colors.
• Do not place text on top of patterns.

Use patterns to divide content.

Use patterns as graphic elements to bring visual interest.

Use patterns as graphic elements to bring visual interest and create flow.

Do not place text on patterns.
Emphasis Marks

Use
Emphasis Marks should be added to all level one headlines using the Emphasis Mark library.

Use only square marks at the end of a sentence to avoid confusion with punctuation.

Variation
Two marks are preferred, one at the beginning and one at the end of a headline. Beginning and end emphasis marks should be different colors (i.e. Splash, Razzmatazz, Black, or White).

Size & Alignment
The x-height of the headline font is the unit of measurement for the alignment and size of the Emphasis marks.

Connecting brands today with the culture of tomorrow.
Things to Avoid

1. Do not use curved Emphasis Marks at the end of a sentence.
2. Do not scale Emphasis Marks larger/smaller than headline font x-height.
3. Do not ignore Emphasis Mark alignment guidelines.
4. Do not use a pattern on a background with a clashing color or any image.
5. Do not use a pattern on a background of the same color, that color will get lost.

IMAGERY

Diversity

Photography, whether captured in a shoot or in selecting stock, should reflect the diverse communities that use TikTok, and reflect the world. Always be inclusive by showing and casting diversity among race, culture, gender, age, size, abilities, socioeconomic status, and region.

Things To Avoid

- Limiting models to a single gender or race, region.
- Limiting location to one region (urban, rural, suburban).

Ethnicity/Race/Culture

Use imagery that reflects our global audience by casting diverse models that feel authentic within your region.

Age

Our audience is 16 – 34 year olds that love to create content and interact with a global community. Use imagery of people on both ends of the spectrum and include seniors when it feels natural.

Gender

Use imagery that reflects the creative expression of audience by being inclusive of all gender identities.
Photography Application

Imagery, whether shot or stock, should follow content, style, and photography guidelines across all applications.

Image Masks
Imagery is cropped in rounded rectangle frames with 25% or 50% roundness. Images can be rotated, in 10-degree increments, to create fun and dynamic compositions.

Colored Borders
Key imagery can be highlighted with Splash, Razzmatazz, Black or White for emphasis.
IMAGERY

Things to Avoid

1. Busy foreground elements.
2. Static moments with inactivity.
3. Blown-out skies, hair, tree edges, etc.
4. Harsh shadows or lighting on the subject, along with reflections and blur that complicate the photo.
5. Cluttered and complex compositions that distract from the main hero.
6. Limiting models to a single gender or race.

---

Images with Do’s & Don’ts

1. Do not shoot or source imagery with busy foreground elements.
2. Do not shoot or source imagery with static moments where people are not engaged.
3. Do not shoot or source imagery with blown-out areas so image holds an edge on white.
4. Do not use overly dramatic lighting and excessive lens flare.
5. Do not shoot or source imagery with busy backgrounds or environments that distract from the subject.
6. Do not limit models to a single gender or race.
Video Rules

Content
Video content should always exude a high level of energy and fun from the get-go. Creative editing, trick cuts, interesting transitions, effects and dancing are a few examples of how to keep videos entertaining and uniquely TikTok. There’s always opportunity to add a “TikTok twist.” No two videos should feel too similar.

Content should feel real and authentic to each featured brand or business. Footage should be filmed in a workplace setting or feature hints to the business (i.e., logos, branded accessories, product, etc.). The goal is not to make something that resembles an ad a brand would make on another platform, but to behave natively as a creator on TikTok. That authenticity is what gets brands noticed.

Orientation
Videos should always be shot in a vertical 9:16 format to stay true to the platform.

Real business environment.

Business product feature.

Real business environment with employee in uniform.
Video Rules

Music
Sound is key on TikTok. Unlike other platforms, most content you see is inspired by the music or sounds featured, and might inspire others to remix your content. Videos should feature songs (or SFX) that feel like they came straight from TikTok. When in doubt, spend 10 minutes scrolling through TikTok for genre inspiration.

SFX
In lieu of or in addition to music, unexpected sound effects can also be breakthrough. Things like mismatched sounds to actions, lip syncing, etc.

Effects and Filters
Effects should be used to help elevate the video and give it more of a personality. Whatever effect is used should feel unique to the platform and either be taken straight from the effects library or influenced by an existing effect there.
Do’s & Don’ts

Things to Avoid

• Content should not be overly staged or produced, or resemble any type of content that would have been made for another platform.

• Content should not be shot in a horizontal or square format.

• One long, locked-off shot with no movement or effects.

Things to Do

• Use TikTok as your inspiration. If you’re ever stuck, spend time scrolling through TikTok and you will find answers. Let the platform do its job: to inspire your creativity.

Don’t create content that is over produced.

Don’t shoot for horizontal or square.

Do get lost scrolling TikTok finding inspiration from all the amazing creators.
