Dear Goddess,

When it comes to travel, The Travel Corporation \(TTC\) is one of the most respected businesses in the world, with 42 companies in its portfolio. This 103-year-old, family-owned company was among the first to reach out to me when I took over JourneyWoman in 2019. At their March 2020 International Women's Day celebration, I was brought to tears when they hosted a special memorial for JourneyWoman founder Evelyn Hannon, noting her contributions to women's travel and solo travel.

Today, I want to re-introduce you to TTC, their new guided trips for women and to President, TTC Tour Brands, North America, Melissa DaSilva, who I met with recently in Toronto. I'd like to think that Evelyn and JourneyWoman solo travellers were an inspiration for these women-only trips, which also support women-owned and women-run businesses and include a minimum of three MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experiences, where women have an opportunity to give back to the communities they visit.

Melissa is the head of seven (yes, seven!) of TTC's guided tour businesses, including Trafalgar, Insight Vacations and Luxury Gold. A long-time solo traveller, she is eager to empower solo women and ensure that TTC's offerings are safe, affordable and customized for solo travellers, particularly women on their first solo trips.

But there's more... I have a surprise for you!

It's one thing to hear about these women-only trips, but I want to experience one for myself. So I'm going on Insight's first women-only trip to Italy, Slovenia and Croatia this September! This 13-day all-women tour departs from Venice on September 25 and ends in Dubrovnik on October 7. Insight and its non-profit partner, the TreadRight Foundation, have worked with the United Nations to identify experiences that make a positive impact.

Did I mention that Celine Cousteau, grand-daughter of oceanographer Jacques Cousteau, is joining us? This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

Come with me!

If you've been thinking about getting back out there, this is a perfect opportunity. We can travel together and Insight will look after all the details for you so that you can have a stress-free holiday. Plus there's a special discount* just for JourneyWoman readers when you use use PPJourneyWoman22 to book! (Please read Terms & Conditions at the bottom of this email.*)

I know there are many women eager to travel. Hopefully this will help you that first step toward the future.

With gratitude,

Carolyn

Highlights include wandering the cobbled streets of Istria and the Old Town of Dubrovnik. In Hvar, we'll visit a family-run vineyard, enjoy a farm-to-table lunch in Barban, and enjoy fresh seafood in Piran. We'll learn about the art of silk and embroidery traditions in Konavle, discover the fish conservation work at a family fish farm in Slovenia and sip beer at Croatia's first women co-op brewery. I'm excited to hike through the healing wilderness outside of Korcula Town and partake in a yoga class with the perfect sea view.
