

Share your views on budget travel

Aug 20, 2021

Dear Journeywoman,

As we look to the future, the cost of travel is top of our minds. Compared to 2020 when the pandemic kept people close to home and travel prices plummeted, 2021 has seen travel costs across the board – from hotels to flights – dramatically increase as more people begin to travel again.

Savvy travellers are always looking for ways to offset rising costs. We'd like to get your thoughts on trip planning and budgeting – what's your plan to save money? What are the challenges faced by solo travellers? What tips can you share with other women? We also want your pet peeves. Your input will help us focus our editorial and partnerships. Please take our brief survey here, and if you have ideas or tips that you'd like to share with other women in upcoming editorial, please send me an email at editor@journeywoman.com.

Today, we're introducing you to Dollar Flight Club, a member-based service that guarantees huge savings when you travel domestically and internationally, in Economy or First Class. Dollar Flight Club comes highly recommended by AFAR Magazine and the Points Guys.

Dollar Flight Club is offering JourneyWomen a special $1 deal to help you save money on airline seats, from any destination around the world.

Here are the details:

- For one dollar, you get Premium status for two (2) weeks to experience the spectacular savings Dollar Flight Club offers its members.
- After a two-week trial, you can join for a year for only $69 (USD).
- Simply indicate which airport you depart from, and you will receive a steady flow of flight deals.

If you'd like to check it out, click on this link for more information and to sign up.

Please let me know what you think of this service, or if you have others to recommend. We're always happy to reach out to potential partners to help you reduce your travel costs.

Take care and be safe,

Carolyn
