

New year, new plans!

Jan 6, 2023

Dear Goddess,

Welcome to 2023! I don't know about you, but I am easing into the new year slowly, making sure I have time to pause and reflect. Last year was a hectic one, and having travelled to 17 countries in 2022, I am reminded how fortunate we are to have the gifts of privilege, the comfort of peace and freedom of choice to do what we want, when we want.

For the past month, I've been in Spain, exploring Malaga, Seville, and Ronda (pictured below). I can't wait to share these experiences with you, so I've found a small town just outside Malaga (population 800) where there is wifi but no distractions!

I am incredibly excited about what 2023 holds for all of us, and I know that this is going to be the year you make all your travel dreams come true, just as I'm doing. Last year, I let things happen — this year I am going to make things happen. After all, time is fleeting and I believe I can do more good by getting out in the world and sharing my experiences. As women, we can make the world a better place through our own actions.
