

January 2021, Renewal Issue, No. 1

Jan 14, 2021

Dear JourneyWoman,

Welcome to our first issue of the new year! Despite what we're seeing in the world, I still feel optimistic about the future, inspired by the Travel Predictions and Resolutions from our Women's Travel Advisory Council. I believe we have an opportunity to be more purposeful and intentional in our travel decisions, while exercising our power and influence as women to create a better world.

I am committed to helping you prepare for travel in the future by publishing fresh, practical editorial and events to help you get 'TravelReady.' My goal is to elevate your confidence, sustain your enthusiasm and desire to travel, and create opportunities for positive, constructive conversations. I'd love to know what I can do to help you prepare: please click HERE to share your thoughts in a confidential, quick survey.

This year, JourneyWoman celebrates 27 years of empowering women who love travel. I love publishing this magazine, and am deeply grateful to all the women who help make it possible through their feedback, ideas and articles. It has also been incredibly fulfilling to create new events and forums to share wisdom and support each other.

I hope to accomplish even more. However, I can't do this without your support. If you find these services helpful, I would like to invite you to consider becoming a founding member of the JourneyWoman Circle. For less than $8 a month, your membership gives you access to exclusive editorial, special events, deals and discounts and a private, off-social-media forum to connect with other women. As always, thank you for your generosity and many contributions to sustain JourneyWoman and Evelyn's legacy.

One final note: I know that many of us feel isolated or lonely right now. Please consider joining one of our six Community Calls, which run across three different time zones. I promise you will find an inspiring, supportive group of women just like you to connect with. Details are at the bottom of this email.

If nothing else, the past few weeks have shown us about the strength of our institutions, our communities and the resolve that exists within us. We are resilient, we are courageous and we will get through this together! We are JourneyWomen!

Please, take care and be safe,
