

Dear Journeywoman,

I'm constantly amazed by the ways in which JourneyWomen inspire one another. I'm writing to you from Prince Edward Island (PEI), where I've joined JourneyWoman Marilyn to walk part of the 700 kilometre PEI Camino with her. Marilyn is on Day 24 of her journey, which she has been sharing on our private Facebook Group. Today, we walked 21 kilometres together, and I can't wait to do it again tomorrow. It reminds me that when we have the courage to live our dreams, we are unstoppable!

Inspiration is more than an editorial theme at JourneyWoman. It's a philosophy infused into everything we do. Perhaps that's one of the reasons I'm so excited about Rosemary Neave's Women Travel the World (WomenTravel.info) joining the JourneyWoman family. I've enjoyed meeting our new tour operators, all incredible women who are passionate about creating safe, unique travel experiences for you, from adventure to textiles to gardens to more.

This issue is full of tips and features from our global community. A new course to take your photography game to the next level, a wealth of budget-friendly travel tips, a feature exploring how to prepare for a post-retirement life of travel, a handy article listing the apps that JourneyWomen won't leave home without — there's something for everyone. Thank you to all the women who shared their ideas, their wisdom, and took the time to send in an article.

I hope you find some inspiration in this issue and enjoy the tips and practical advice shared by women to help you travel safely and well.

Please take care, and be safe,

Carolyn
