Industry Inks is owned, operated and designed by tattoo artist/shop owner Matt Kramer and veteran chemist Eric Watson.

All of the ink is developed with organic pigments and vegan friendly ingredients.

We designed our product with the perfect balance of pigment load and ease of workability in mind. Our goal has been to make an ink that could saturate consistently therefore causing less trauma and facilitating better overall heals. Our pigments have proven to overall heal with better, brighter and bolder tattoos.

Try us out and see for yourself!
