

Goodbye

Written By: Angeline Pompei

I'm taking this chance

It's of circumstance

To follow my dreams

No matter how hard it seems

Choices we make

And friendships are fake

In the end it's just me

In perfect harmony

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The better parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The loving parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

Whispers or Rhymes

Millions or dimes

It doesn't matter to me

Whatever reality

Don't look at the past

I bring with me a dance

Be part of my past

Or move with me at last

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The better parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The loving parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

I don't care, if no one's there, I'll live and dare, alone somewhere ...

I sit and stare, fully aware, where I have been, where I have been...

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The better parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

In order to find

The loving parts of me

That can set me free

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

I'm saying goodbye

TO THE OLD ME
