

I Can Feel

Written By: Angeline Pompei

Theme: Feeling, healing, processing emotions, relationships, hot and cold

I felt warm inside

In the cold that night

I felt you by my side

It felt so right

I felt your bite

That's all I'm going to write

Then the music stopped

It stopped so fast I dropped

It's like I hit a million watts

You can leave me

Try to deceive me

But you can't take away my thoughts

I can feel

Feelings heal

Feeling makes me real

It's not ideal
Should I reveal
My feelings are for real
I can feel
Feelings heal
Feeling makes me real
It was surreal
I won't conceal
My feelings you won't steal
Will I feel the same
The same love again
It doesn't happen everyday
I took a vow
I prayed out-loud
That's all I'm going to say
I felt bought and sold
The heat turned so cold
I felt the earth unfold
Like an avalanche
My veins started to blanch
My heart did not stand a chance
(code blue)

I can feel

Feelings heal

Feeling makes me real

It was surreal

I won't conceal

My feelings you won't steal

I'm the only one feeling

I'm the only one grieving.

I can feel

Feelings heal

Feeling makes me real

I can feel

Feelings heal

Feeling makes me real

I can feel

Feelings heal

Feeling makes me real

Feeling makes me real

Feeling makes me real
