

To Love

Written By: Angeline Pompei

Theme: love, Romeo and Juliet/Zorro influence

Love is rare

It's in the air

It comes in pairs

Love makes you dare

I can smell your hair

In your eyes I stared

You can't compare

When you're aware

I saw the sadness in your eyes

When you love, said goodbye

I said I love you

You loved me too

If only love had its way

I'd be with you in every way

I think about you every day

That is not ok

Love is rare

Now a nightmare

Broken hearts

You can't repair

Loving you was loving me

There are no guarantees

Is love blessing or a curse?

Will I love again?

Even worst?

Or the same verse?

If only love had its way

I'd be with you in every way

I think about you every day

That is not ok

We kissed goodbye, In the night,

The moon was so full and so bright

Now you are my sad fallen knight

That is not ok

If only love had its way

I'd be with you in every way

I think about you every day

That is not ok

If only love had its way
I'd be with you in every way

I think about you every day

That is not ok

It's not ok

My fallen knight

He he he
