DEMI-FINE JEWELRY

OUR PROMISE

Nomies promise to you is to create jewelry built on Truth and Transparency. Quality and timeless pieces that are handcrafted to last a lifetime and to travel with you through all of life's adventures.

OUR JEWELRY

Nomie stands by the true meaning of Demi Fine Jewelry. Each piece is created with 18k Gold Fill. Not to be confused with Gold Plated, Dipped or Vermeil. Our collection is custom-designed in the US and our Gold is sourced and handcrafted in beautiful Brazil.

Gold-filled jewelry is an excellent option for those who wish to have a product of exceptional quality that is beautiful and anti-allergenic, with prices substantially lower than solid gold. 18k Gold-filled Jewelry contains a much thicker layer of actual karat gold than "plated" gold. With the proper care, Gold Filled jewelry will last a lifetime in comparison to any type of plated. The core of the piece is jeweler's brass while the outer core is a thick layer of heat & pressure-bonded solid gold. The absolute perfect combination to create the Demi Fine Collection at Nomie. Our pieces are hypoallergenic and free of harmful chemicals such as nickel, cadmium, and lead. Our jewelry is crafted to the highest standards and quality. We use the finest 18k pure gold, ensuring they travel with you and can be handed down to your loved ones through all life's adventures.

MEET THE FOUNDERS

The last few years have been an eye-opening experience. How quickly our existence can change and the importance of living life with inspiration and passion. Raising an 8-year-old sweetheart in a world of uncertainty one stepping stone at a time. Through all my experiences leading up to this moment, I have learned that I am artistically talented and capable of creating and bringing my visions to life. As a huge supporter of small businesses and online retail, I believe that fast fashion, although it may be fun, it's a waste to our environment and not sustainable. I woke up one day after spending too much money on a necklace, from a larger and more well-known retailer, only to learn that it would quickly fade and become a piece I would unfortunately throw away. I was sold on good branding and not quality. It was then my vision for Nomie became underway. I wanted to build a small business that is built on Truth & Transparency. It's important to me that my pieces are timeless, can be worn through all life's adventures, and that the dollar amount of an item does not define the quality.

My Daughter is my number one inspiration, she's my partner and my boss! I believe it's never too early to pass on the valuable lessons I have learned in life that have brought me to this point. While I also believe it's never too late to start new adventures. Passion, dreams and ideas do not have to be on a timeline. If I can lead by example and give my Daughter the confidence to choose her own path in life, a path that brings her pure joy my heart will be full. Building Nomie with my little one are memories I'll cherish a lifetime as I hope for her as well.

I believe the key to success is taking chances, being brave and doing what it is that makes you wake up each day fulfilled and with purpose.

We share Nomie with you, with love....
