

CURIOUS KINGDOM STICK PUPPETS

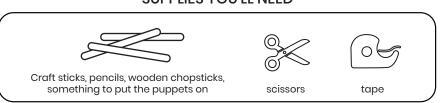

You and your kiddos will love these fun and free stick puppets! This is a simple DIY puppet that you can make at home with just a printer and some tape. It makes for some hands-on storytelling fun that preschoolers will love!

INSTRUCTIONS

- For best results, print the pages on card stock this is optional of course!
- Cut out the puppets and tape each one to your holder (craft stick, pencil, etc.)

SUPPLIES YOU'LL NEED

King KetchupThe king, who puts ketchup on EVERYTHING, is a lot like an overgrown kid.

Queen Alpha Always ready with a good story, Alpha loves reading and learning new words.

Knight of Never-EverHe is very picky, and doesn't like trying new things... never, ever.

SnufflesA loveable fire-breathing dragon... who has terrible allergies.

Knight of Always
He's a great friend to the gnomes, but this knight always rushes into everything without thinking.

The Castle

The magical castle is the friend and companion to all who dwell within it.

OO

Fish Stick

He's absent-minded, but he's also kind, loyal, and always ready to help a friend.

Princess Petunia

Petunia is smart, energetic and always ready for an adventure!

Ollie is Petunia's cousin, and a sweet, loyal friend who loves to eat.

Snack Cake

This clever gnome loves math and engineering, and is happiest when he's building cool things.