Aproveite o frete grátis pelo MercadoLivre.com.br! This was me 2016-2018 when I was still in the USMC stationed in Japan and Was on #Superdrol and #Tren. I was separated with a OTH in 2018 because of my own decisions to smoke weed to cope with my depression and snitch on myself to get out. I didn't do a proper #PCT so my hormones were everywhere and I've always had #MDD I hated being controlled in the military and felt like a betrayer of my race for serving a country that never gave a f about those like me. I had my brother on drugs back home, my mom was going through chemo as well as struggling financially raising his daughter and I felt lost. I got out the military and tried to get back into fitness after but I didn't have the same drive. I started working at warehouses smoking pot heavy and just existing to die at some point not caring when. Contemplated taking my life a lot but kept failing. Speed up to today I'm 250lbs and disgusted by the man in the mirror. I decided it's time to make a change. I decided to start a program to get my #ISSAcertification and now I'm back on my journey. The goal is to be better than I was before not to be who I was. I make no promises to stay #natty but I am for now. Thanks for joining me on my journey

I was someone who deeply wanted to be on hormones, and I could not be the person and artist I am today without taking my Testosterone. I was lucky enough to start T when I was 18, and I've been happily on it since! But, I personally experienced the trauma of medical gatekeepers, insurance companies messing up, and cis providers' microaggressions.
