When you buy Winstrol you have two options; oral tablets or an injectable solution. The majority of women who buy Winstrol will be best served purchasing 10mg tabs as this is the typical daily recommended dose and most men who buy Winstrol will be best served purchasing the 50mg tabs... You can buy Winstrol oral tabs or an injectable serum, and both have their places in bulking and cutting cycles. A 10mg dosage for women is sufficient for their needs, though some may take up to 20mg daily. Keep in mind that anything more than 10mg significantly increases the risk of virilization.

Over the past couple decades I became more aware that attracting attention from men was dangerous--& suffered the resulting consequences of trying to barrel through "just being myself" despite how others see me. see post
