

Production/ Product Development Intern

Profile:

- You can work with creative software such as Photoshop, Illustrator, Indesign;
- You can work with Microsoft Excel and Outlook;
- Fluency in English is a requirement;
- You work independently, flexible and are stress resistant;
- You study fashion or fashion & management;
- Drivers license B is a must.

Job Description:

- You maintain contact with international suppliers;
- Assist in quality control of Pre-production samples and shipment samples;
- You follow up logistics and are responsible for sending out goods to the customers and/or manufacturers;
- Responsible in picking and packing of bulk components;
- Working on creating and approving care label information;
- Attend fitting sessions;
- You assist with updating the product/ERP program;
- You will be taught the production software;
- You help launching the new collection.

Offer:

- An internship with diverse tasks and responsibilities in a professional environment;
- An internship with a minimum duration of 3 months;
- Opportunity to learn and develop yourself in a small company with the ability to shift within/learn from different departments.