Malibu

The founders of this label had visions of palm trees, beaches, poolside lounging and piña coladas when they came up with the idea of sourcing and creating beach and swimwear. Malibu is an independent brand offering in-house designs following the latest trends. The pieces are versatile enough to be worn on the beach or by the pool, and carry you through to sunset cocktails. Sizes are catered more for the Asian figure, but measurements are clearly stated so be sure to check. Bikinis and swimsuits are available in easy-to-wear colours and prints, and resort wear features chic tunics and kaftans. The current collection garners inspiration from getaways to Bali with contemporary prints and effortless lines.
