IMPORTANT: The colours shown in this chart have been matched as closely as possible to a wet paint sample. This digital chart however can not serve as a standard for color productions. The colours represented digitally depends & varies on your monitor/device settings and printer & are for guidance only. For more accurate representations a physical version of this wall chart featuring paint samples can be ordered from our sales order office. Always test paint on a small inconspicuous area. Leach's cannot be held responsible for incorrect colour choices.

The methods used in the charts manufacture seek to provide reliable colour representation. The information used to manufacture this product has been obtained from and is publicly available for use from colour standard issuing authorities. It is permissible to reproduce the colours and references shown. In using this product it is clearly accepted that no responsibility for the colour representations in this card can be attributed in any way to the colour standard issuing authority.

A products manufacturing, drying performance and publication method may cause the final colour, once applied, to not match the samples you select a colour from. If the colours accuracy is important then please check before using any coating that the final colour will match your expectations. The colour samples are checked for accuracy by the manufacturer of this guide only, no other body is involved or can be held responsible for the replication of the colour samples shown here. Liability for mistakes in the shade card manufacture is limited to a replacement card only. If you feel in any doubt please contact your local provider for advice prior to application. No responsibility can be accepted by the manufacturer or provider of this colour guide for any mis-representation or mis-interpretation of colour.
