

Thanks For Winter Squash

Yugoslavian Fingers

Just as the name states, Yugoslavian Finger contains 8 to 10 fingers that extend towards the blossom end. These fingers make the ribs on the side of the fruit and give it its unique look. Yugoslavian Finger is a light white/cream color, weighing 4 to 5 pounds. Pick these beauties young for a delicious treat or decorate your house with the spectacular ornamental fruits.

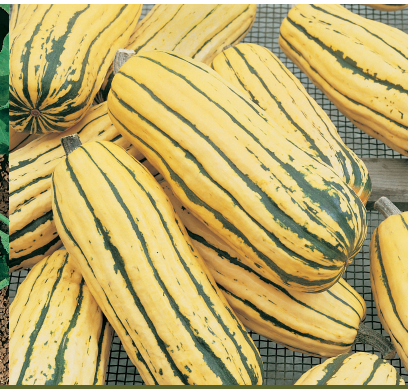

Red Kuri

92 days to maturity. Red Kuri is a Japanese heirloom winter squash with beautiful red-orange skin. The fruits are teardrop shaped, weighing 5 to 10 pounds each. Red Kuri's golden flesh is sweet and rich, which is perfect for making pies and roasting!

Pilgrim F1

80 – 90 days to maturity. Pilgrim is a hybrid butternut squash that performs well under a wide variety of growing conditions and has a strong tolerance to resist cracking and bleeding. The compact plant produces uniform fruits that weigh 3 pounds, with thick, meaty necks. Butternut squash are considered the standard winter squash for Fall and winter cuisine.

Pinata F1

85 days to maturity. Piñata is a hybrid squash with ivory cream skin and dark green stripes. The fruits range from 7 inches to 9 inches long, weighing 2 to 3 pounds. Piñata contains a rich, sweet potato-like flavor and is a good keeper for winter storage. When oven roasted, the skins are edible and high in vitamins and fiber.

Burgess Buttercup

85 – 100 days to maturity. Burgess Buttercup weighs 3 to 5 pounds and is 5 to 8 inches in diameter. The turban-shaped fruit is dark green with slight ribbing and a distinctive blossom end button. Burgess Buttercup's flesh is orange, dry, very sweet and has a distinctive nutty flavor.

Turk's Turban

100 days to maturity. Turk's Turban is red, yellow, orange, and green, with white stripes and a scarlet top. Its flesh is orange and thick, perfect for baking and stuffing. These distinctive, turban-shaped fruit are excellent for fall displays and resemble a colorful turban. Turk's Turban weighs 5 pounds and can be 8 to 12 inches in diameter. Whether you use Turk's Turban in your next dish or for your seasonal display, you won't be disappointed with this French heirloom!

Festival F1

Festival is a decorative and delicious winter squash. Its skin is marbled and would look gorgeous on display. Not only is Festival a beautiful sight to rest your eyes, but its pale orange flesh is also sweet and nutty making it another squash perfect for roasting and baking. This hybrid winter squash is semi-bush vining plant and yields an abundance of tricolored fruits. Enjoy Festival this fall as a decoration or sweet treat!

Chicago Warded

105 days to maturity. Chicago Warded is one of the best processing type squash on the market! Its skin is dark green/black and covered in warts. The fruits weigh 12 to 16 pounds with diameter range of 10-14 inches. When searching for an attractive ornamental squash, Chicago Warded is an excellent choice for home garden and market growers.
