QUARTZITE

BALI BLUE

Bali Blue has a captivating fusion of blue and gray tones, marked by unique veining and dynamic movement. Ideal for kitchen and bathroom countertops, bars, and more, it effortlessly elevates any space with its sophistication. Quartzite embodies the elegance of marble while surpassing granite in hardness. Sealed for easy maintenance, it offers both beauty and durability.

GRANITE

BLUE EAGLE

Blue Eagle Granite features rich blue and beige hues throughout the stone with darker blue and charcoal tone veining. It is ideal for any interior use including kitchen and bathroom counter tops, tub decks, fireplace surrounds, bar tops, and more.

QUARTZ

CAESARSTONE MIDDAY

MIDDAY is a light grey surface that serves as the new neutral, reminiscent of an industrial concrete aesthetic enriched with warmer greys and a confetti of cloudy sparks. It evokes the beauty of nature, making it a perfect fit for relaxing gardens adorned with white or glass metal furniture, or more classic seating in wicker.

MARBLE

CALACATTA BONAERO

The beautiful Calacatta Bonaero Marble Countertop slab is a white marble dolomite slab with wavy gray and beige vein movements with a creamy white undertone. Marble is a classically elegant product that is utilized in numerous ways including counter tops, tub decks, fireplace surrounds, and more.

QUARTZ

LUXE CELESTIA

Fall in love with Celestia and its captivating blend of grey-blue and gold veins gracefully intertwined on a pristine white background. Celestia exudes an air of luxury reminiscent of marble. This exquisite design combines the aesthetic appeal of marble with the numerous advantages of Quartz.

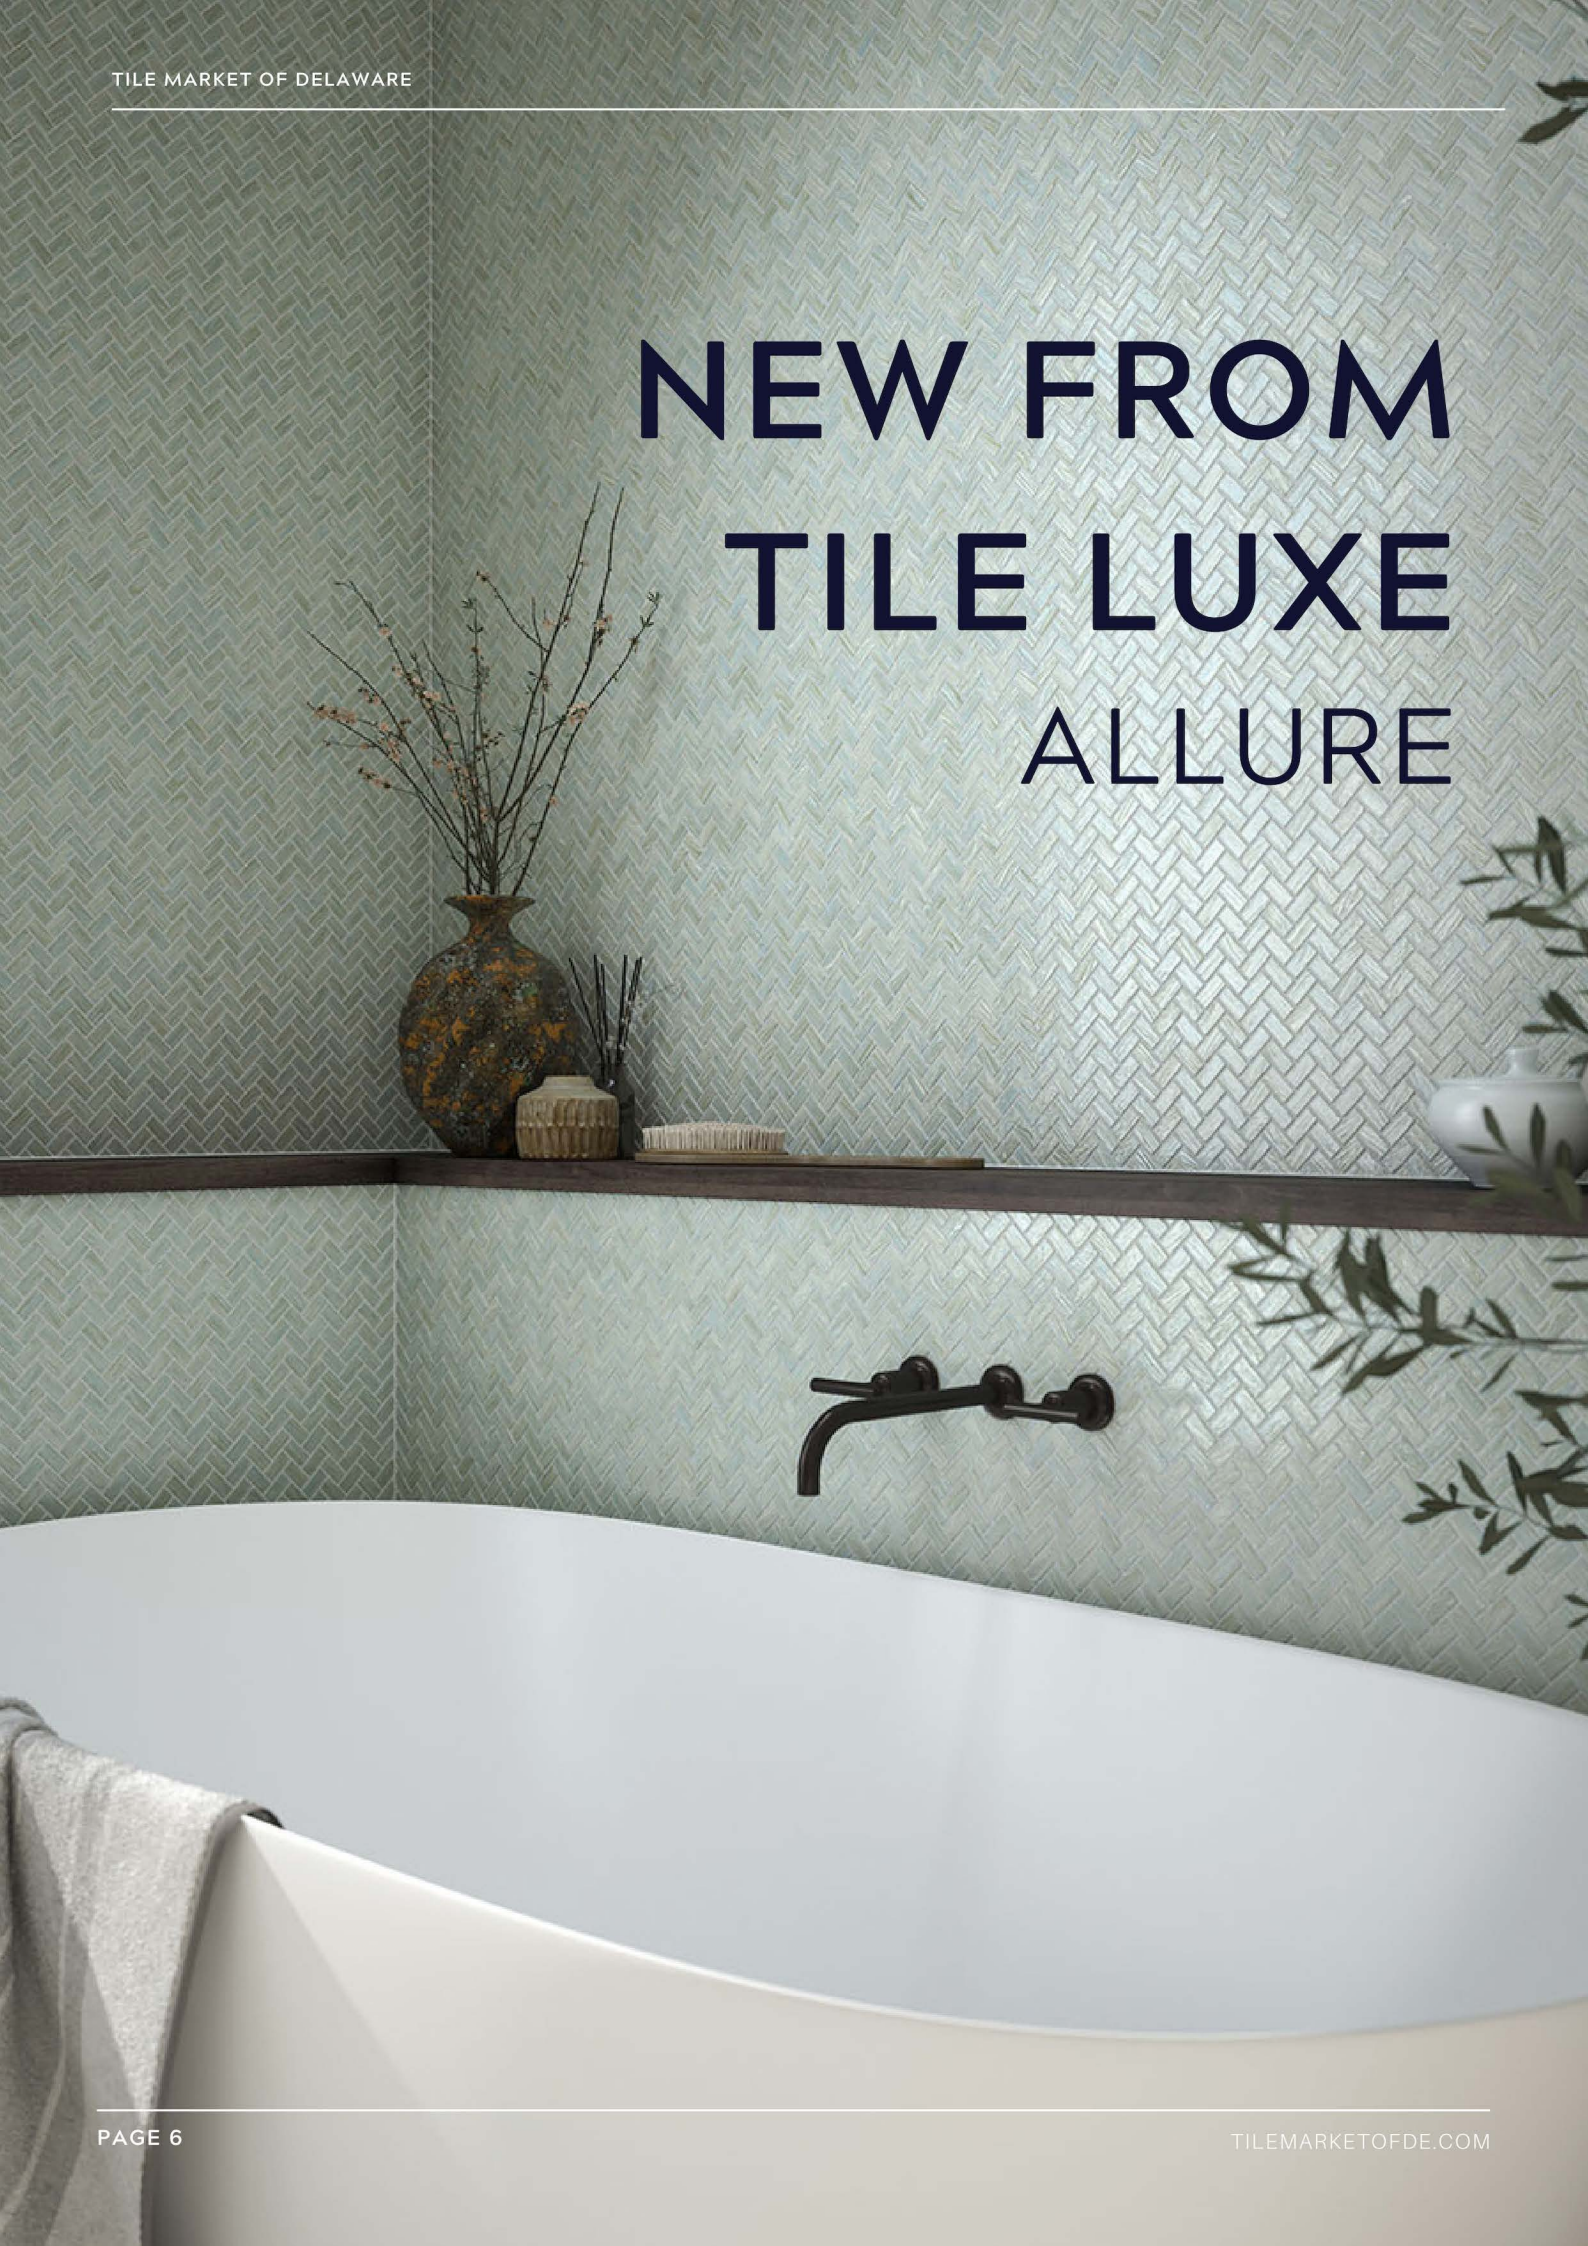

QUARTZITE

WHITE MACUBAS

White Macubas features a creamy base adorned with elegant linear veins in darker shades, exuding sophistication and depth. This exquisite slab seamlessly combines natural beauty with timeless appeal, perfect for elevating any space with its distinctive charm.
