

Blooming Cat Tarot

GUIDEBOOK
with Color Images

This guidebook acts as a base to help you gain a general understanding of each card in this deck. It is inspired by the classic Rider Waite deck and shares some of the same symbolism.

Using your own observation, investigation, and intuition, you will be able to interpret them in your own way and find even more meaning, symbolism, and depth.

Happy Reading!

THE FOUR SUITS

Trees/Branches=Wands

Daffodils=Cups

Lavender=Swords

Floral Pentacles=Pentacles

The Fool-0

Element: Air Planet: Uranus Astrology: Aries

The Fool depicts a young cat traveling with only a ball of yarn & a small companion that seems to be keeping a watchful eye on him. The cat stares off into the distance, perhaps dreaming of future adventures. He is very close to knocking the yarn off the cliff. Does he realize this or is he unaware of the potential dangers that lie in his path? This, we do not know.

Upright- new beginnings, innocence, spontaneity, adventure

Reversed- foolish, recklessness, distracted

The Magician-1

Element: Air Planet: Mercury Astrology: Virgo, Gemini

The Magician's tail is pointed to the sky, while a finger points to the ground, as if to say "as above, so below". The Magician is surrounded by all four tarot suits, these symbolize the four elements, earth, water, air, and fire, being connected by the magician. The infinity sign indicates unlimited capacity for creativity.

Upright- manifestation, desire, concentration, resourcefulness

Reversed- manipulation, wasted talent

The High Priestess-2

Element: Water Planet: Moon Astrology: Virgo

The High Priestess sits between two pillars that represent the duality of nature. She is the third pillar, the mediator or path between the two. She is calm, wise, and exudes an air of mystery.

Upright- intuition, spirituality, higher power, wisdom

Reversed- confusion, secrets, repressed

The Empress-3

Element: Earth Planet: Venus Astrology: Taurus

The Empress sits on a cushioned throne and wears a stary crown. She is surrounded by fertile flowers and leaves. She is ruled by venus and brings abundance to the reader.

Upright- fertility, nature, femininity

Reversed- smothering, dependence on others

The Emperor-4

Element: Fire Planet: Mars Astrology: Aries

The Emperor appears as a stoic figure and is a firm leader that rules with force. He is experienced, ambitious, and determined.

Upright- authority, establishment, structure

Reversed- tyranny, lack of discipline

The Hierophant-5

Element: Earth Planet: Venus Astrology: Taurus

The Hierophant sits between two pillars representing obedience and disobedience. He wears a three-tiered crown, representing the three different worlds. The keys to heaven are at his feet. Two disciples stand before him.

Upright- tradition, conformity, spiritual wisdom, ethics

Reversed- rebellion, subversiveness

The Lovers-6

Element: Air Planet: Mercury Astrology: Gemini

The Lovers sit together in happiness and harmonious union under the bright sun as temptation lurks behind them.

Upright- partnerships, duality, love, union, harmony

Reversed- imbalance, one-sidedness

The Chariot-7

Element: Water Planet: Moon Astrology: Cancer

The Chariot depicts a rider being pulled by one black and one white cat going in opposite directions, a symbol of opposing forces that the rider must learn to control. The charioteer sits under a canopy of stars suggesting he is influenced by celestial forces.

Upright- success, control, willpower

Reversed- lack of control, lack of direction, aggression

Strength-8

Element: Fire Planet: Sun Astrology: Leo

Strength calmly stands with her eyes closed next to a growling lion that sits next to her.

Upright- inner strength, bravery, compassion

Reversed- self-doubt, weakness, insecurity

The Hermit-9

Element: Earth Planet: Mercury Astrology: Virgo

The Hermit stands alone at the peak of a mountain while holding a lantern of wisdom in one of paws. He has successfully climbed the mountain and is committed to the path he has taken.

Upright- contemplation, introspection, soul-searching
Reversed- loneliness, isolation

Wheel of Fortune-10

Element: Fire Planet: Jupiter Astrology: Capricorn

The alchemical and symbolic Wheel of Fortune represents the wheel of life. In the corners of the card are four creatures, each associated with the four fixed signs of the Zodiac: the angel is Aquarius, the eagle is Scorpio, the lion is Leo, and the bull is Taurus. On top of the wheel sits a Sphinx that represents knowledge and strength.

Upright- change, cycles, destiny
Reversed- no control, resistance to change

Justice-11

Element: Air Planet: Venus Astrology: Libra

Justice holds scales in her left hand as a symbol of balance and a sword on her right, ready to exact justice if needed. She stands in front of a purple veil, and a world behind it.

Upright- cause and effect, clarity, fairness
Reversed- dishonesty, unaccountability, unfairness

The Hanged Cat-12

Element: Water Planet: Neptune Astrology: Pisces

The Hanged Cat is suspended upside-down by one leg, it seems as if he could easily free himself if he desired to. He has a peaceful look on his face and a glowing halo around his head representing enlightenment.

Upright- sacrifice, release, new perspectives

Reversed- resistance, needless sacrifice

Death-13

Element: Water Planet: Pluto Astrology: Scorpio

Death, sometimes known as the Grim Reaper, stands atop a skull with a third eye. He blocks the path so that everyone, regardless of who they are, must pass him before moving forward.

Upright- endings, transformation, change

Reversed- fear of change, holding on

Temperance-14

Element: Fire Planet: Jupiter Astrology: Sagittarius

Temperance depicts a winged angel with one foot in the water representing the subconscious, while the other foot is on dry land, a representation of the material world. Water easily flows between two flower cups suggesting union and balance.

Upright- balance, patience, finding meaning

Reversed- extreme, excess, lack of balance

The Devil-15

Element: Earth Planet: Saturn Astrology: Capricorn

The Devil stands atop a pedestal where two unhappy looking cats are chained before him. They are under his control. The grapes and flame on the cat's tails represent the hunger for power and the material world.

Upright- addiction, materialism, playfulness

Reversed- release, restoring control

The Tower-16

Element: Fire Planet: Mars Astrology: Aries

The Tower card depicts a high tower at the top of an icy mountain. A lightning bolt strikes the tower setting it ablaze. Flames burst from the window & out of the top of the tower. Two cats have jumped out of desperation, trying to escape the destruction within.

Upright- sudden upheaval, change, chaos

Reversed- fear of change, holding on

The Star-17

Element: Air Planet: Uranus Astrology: Aquarius

The Star card depicts a cat at the edge of a pond. She is holding two flowers full of water. She pours one into the pond, the other out to the dry land, nurturing the green, fertile land. One large star surrounded by seven smaller stars shines above her.

Upright- hope, faith, purpose

Reversed- discouragement, insecurity

The Moon-18

Element: Water Planet: Neptune Astrology: Pisces

The Moon card depicts two towers with mountains in the distance and the moon above. There are two rats, one appears docile & domesticated, the other wild. A crawfish is crawling out of the water, seeming to head straight ahead on a path that goes between them.

Upright- unconscious, illusions, anxiety, intuition
Reversed- confusion, fear

The Sun-19

Element: Fire Planet: Sun Astrology: Leo

The Sun card shows a carefree kiiten riding a white horse under the bright sun above them. The cheerful sunflowers and red flag suggest an accomplishment.

Upright- success, celebration, positivity, warmth
Reversed- negativity, depression, sadness

Judgement-20

Element: Fire Planet: Pluto Astrology: Scorpio

Judgement depicts a cat family, rising from the grave, answering the trumpet call of the angel above them. Their arms reach out and they await their fate. Will they spend eternity in heaven or hell?

Upright- rebirth, reflection, reckoning, awakening
Reversed- doubt, self-loathing

The World-21

Element: Earth Planet: Saturn Astrology: Capricorn

The World card shows a dancing cat inside a wreath of flowers. She holds a wand in each of her front paws. It's a harmonious scene. There are four creatures in each corner, the same figures in the Wheel of Fortune card. They represent Scorpio, Leo, Aquarius and Taurus - representatives of the four corners of the universe, the four elements.

Upright- fulfillment, harmony, completion

Reversed- delays, incompleteness, no closure

King of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

The King of Wands sits on a cushion of gold next to a blossoming wand, symbolizing life and creativity. The lion and salamander before him represent fire and strength.

Upright- leadership, vision, taking control

Reversed- domineering, tyrant, powerless

Queen of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

The Queen of Wands sits on a gold cushion with a small black cat, representing her intuition and shadow-self. On one side is a sunflower, symbolizing happiness and fertility. On the other side is a wand which is starting blossom, symbolizing life. The two gold lions

Upright- confident, self-assured, determined

Reversed- jealous, demanding, selfish

Knight of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

The Knight of Wands sits on a powerful horse with a mane that resembles flames. Both are ready for action and battle. Instead of a sword, he holds a flaming wand.

Upright- courageous, self-assured, hero, adventure

Reversed- arrogant, reckless, hasty, lack of self control

Page of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

The Page of Wands stands tall against a large stick and seems very interested in the green leaves that are sprouting from it. Behind him is a mountainous, barren background. Below him is a salamander, a mythical creature that symbolizes transformation and fire.

Upright- free-spirit, adventure, fearless

Reversed- impatient, lacking ideas, unreliable

10 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Ten of Wands depicts a cat carrying a heavy bundle of ten sticks on his back. Though he is struggling, he is nearing his destination in the near distance and will soon be able to release the burden he is carrying.

Upright- hard work, burden, duty, responsibility

Reversed- carrying the burden, breakdown

9 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Nine of Wands shows a tired-looking cat standing amongst 8 trees. He is injured but is determined and ready to battle once more with the staff he holds.

Upright- persistence, resilience, courage

Reversed- struggle, stubbornness, rigidity

8 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Eight of Wands depicts 8 pointed branches flying through the blue sky. They are pointed downward as if they are ready to land.

Upright- progress, quick decisions, sudden changes

Reversed- chaos, delays, losing momentum

7 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Seven of Wands shows a lone cat at the top of a hill defending his position and territory.

Upright- protectiveness, standing up for yourself, defending yourself

Reversed- giving up, admitting defeat, yielding

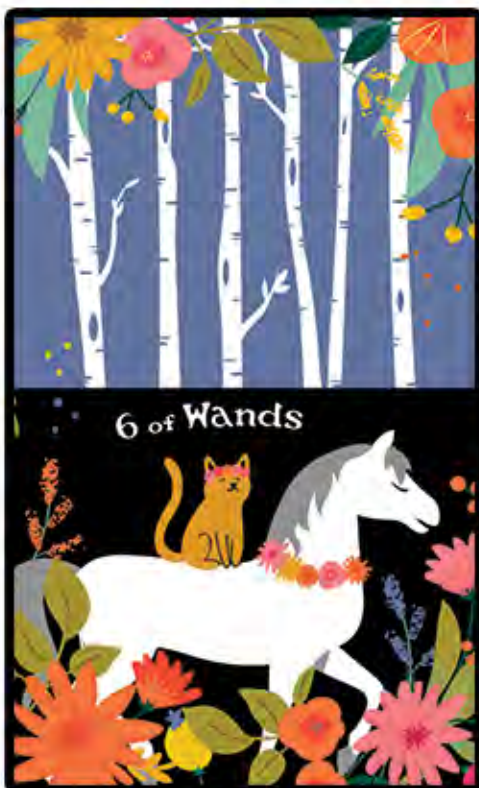

6 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Six of Wands shows a cat with a look of accomplishment on his face riding a beautiful white horse, a symbol of strength and purity. They both are adorned with wreaths, symbols of a victory.

Upright- success, victory, triumph, rewards

Reversed- failure, lack of recognition

5 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Five of Wands shows two cats, one orange and one white, in the middle of five trees. They appear to be either fighting or playing with each other.

Upright- conflict, competition, arguments, tension

Reversed- end of conflict, agreements, harmony

4 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Two cats snuggle between four white blossoming trees. There is a tone that there is something being celebrated.

Upright- celebrations, reunions, stability

Reversed- lack of support, instability

3 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Three of Wands depicts a cat sitting between three trees with his back turned. He is looking out, in a reflective state, toward the water.

Upright- momentum, confidence, growth, foresight

Reversed- limitations, lack of progress, onstacles

2 of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Two of Wands depicts a cat sitting on top of the world between two trees. He looks out at all of the potential opportunities that lie before him.

Upright- decisions, discovery, progress

Reversed- fear of the unknown, lack of planning, not taking action

Ace of Wands

Element: Fire Astrology: Sagittarius, Aries, Leo

Ace of Wands shows a paw holding a sprouting branch. In the distance is a castle, representing future opportunities.

Upright- inspiration, new opportunities, personal growth

Reversed- lack of direction, distractions, delays

King of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The King of Cups sits balanced on a stone cushion floating on top of turbulent waters. He wears a fish amulet around his neck, a symbol of creativity. To his right is a fish jumping out of the water, to his left a ship sailing steadily on the choppy sea.

Upright- diplomatic, compassion, control, balance
Reversed- emotionally manipulative, coldness

Queen of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Queen of Cups sits with a thoughtful expression on a stone throne on a shore of colorful pebbles. She sits between the land and the sea. She wears a crown adorned with a shell and a fish is jumping out of the water, both symbols of the unconscious mind.

Upright- compassion, calm, intuitive
Reversed- insecurity, dependence

Knight of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Knight of Cups rides calmly along the water on a white horse. Three fish, symbolizing consciousness and creativity, jump out of the water. The young cat holds a daffodil, he admires it and holds it as if he's bringing forth a message

Upright- idealist, romantic, creativity
Reversed- unrealistic, moodiness, disappointment

Page of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Page of Cups stands by the wavy sea. A fish appears to fly out of the daffodil next to him and is headed right toward him. The fish and the sea represent the element of water and all things to do with emotions, intuition, and creativity.

Upright- possibility, dreamer, sensitivity

Reversed- emotional immaturity, insecurity, creative blocks

10 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

Ten of Cups depicts a cat family bonding and sharing a moment together looking ahead to a beautiful rainbow and a sky full of 10 daffodils.

Upright- inner happiness, fulfillment, harmony

Reversed- shattered dreams, struggling relationships, disconnection

9 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Nine of Cups show a content looking cat sitting on a wooden bench with a fish. Above him are 9 daffodils symbolizing success and fulfillment, both materially and spiritually.

Upright- satisfaction, emotional stability, gratitude

Reversed- lack of inner joy, indulgence

8 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Eight of Cups depicts a cat sitting near a river with 8 daffodils behind him. They are arranged in such a way that it looks like one is missing, suggesting there is something incomplete. The cat stares ahead to the mountains under the light of the moon, perhaps ready to embark on a journey to a new life.

Upright- disillusionment, leaving behind, withdrawal
Reversed- fear of change, fear of loss

7 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Seven of Cups shows a cat with his back to us. Rising up from the clouds are seven daffodils with various images coming from them, some would be considered gifts, some would not. The clouds and daffodils represent the cats dreams and wishes. He must be careful what he wishes for.

Upright- choice, daydreaming, opportunities
Reversed- lack of purpose, confusion

6 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Six of Cups shows a young cat and a kitten presenting each other with a daffodil. They are standing between a castle and a field of daffodils blooming nearby.

Upright- innocence, happy memories, healing
Reversed- forgiveness, moving forward, independence

5 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Five of Cups shows a cat with his back turned on three daffodils that have fallen behind him. He doesn't notice there are two daffodils standing next to him. In the distance is a flowing river and a bridge beyond the river.

Upright- failure, loss, grief, self-pity

Reversed- acceptance, moving on

4 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Four of Cups shows a cat sitting up against a tree. He is so engrossed in his thoughts he doesn't notice the large paw reaching out offering him a daffodil.

Upright- apathy, contemplation, meditation

Reversed- awareness, withdrawal, acceptance

3 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Three of Cups shows three joyous cats dancing around daffodils in celebration. The ground is covered in grapes, squash and pumpkins, symbols of an abundant harvest.

Upright- friendship, collaborations, happiness

Reversed- overindulgence, isolation

2 of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Two of Cups shows two happy cats touching the petals of their daffodils together. Above them is a Caduceus of Hermes, the ancient symbol of commerce duality, and exchange. At the top of the caduceus is a lion's head, symbolizing fire and passion.

Upright- unity, partnership, connection

Reversed- imbalance, distrust, tension

Ace of Cups

Element: Water Astrology: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

The Ace of Cups shows a paw offering a daffodil that has five flowing streams of water coming from it that fall into a sea containing a lotus. The five streams represent your five senses and the creativity and intuition flowing from within you.

Upright- creativity, new feelings, spirituality

Reversed- blocked creativity, emptiness, repressed emotions

King of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The King of Swords sits upon a golden throne above the clouds. He holds lavender in his paws, it points to his left, the side of the intuitive mind. His crown is adorned with a butterfly, a symbol of transformation. He wears a wreath of blue (symbolic of his spiritual understanding) and purple (symbolic of his compassion) flowers.

Upright- mental clarity, intellectual power, authority

Reversed- misuse of power, manipulation

Queen of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Queen of Swords sits upon a golden winged throne flying above the clouds. She wears a crown adorned with butterflies, symbols of transformation. She looks into the distance while holding her left paw out as if she is either giving or receiving. She protectively has her right paw placed on top of the lavender.

Upright- independent, unbiased judgement

Reversed- emotional, easily influenced, cold-hearted

Knight of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Knight of Swords shows a determined cat riding a strong white horse. They charge on ahead as the wind blows through the grass below them.

Upright- ambitious, success driven, fast-thinking

Reversed- restless, unfocused, impulsive

Page of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Page of Swords sits under moving clouds and blue sky. He's holding lavender that is pointed toward the sky. His body is facing one direction, and his face another. Green, fertile plants are growing in the ground before him.

Upright- curiosity, thirst for knowledge, positive movement forward

Reversed- self-expression, haphazard action

10 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Ten of Swords show a cat with 10 spears of blooming lavender that appear to have been stabbed in his back.

Upright- deep wounds, betrayal, loss

Reversed- recovery, regeneration

9 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Nine of Swords shows an anxious looking cat lying under 9 pieces of lavender. She has been woken up, perhaps by a bad dream.

Upright- anxiety, fear, depression, worry

Reversed- inner turmoil, deep-seated fears, secrets

8 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Eight of Swords depicts a cat that sits blindfolded in the middle of 8 lavender stalks. They seem to create prison-like bars around her. The cat doesn't realize she can simply remove her blindfold and walk away through the gaps in the stalks.

Upright- negative thoughts, self-imposed, restriction, imprisonment

Reversed- inner critic, releasing negative thoughts

7 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Seven of Swords shows a cat taking five stalks of lavender, leaving two standing. As he sneaks away from the castle, he is smiling as if he is proud of himself for getting away with something.

Upright- betrayal, getting away with something

Reversed- self-deceit, keeping secrets

6 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Six of Swords show a cat and her kitten traveling in a boat to land nearby. They cuddle close to each other, leaving the past behind them. The water ahead is calm, while the water on the right is turbulent.

Upright- change, transition, rite of passage

Reversed- resistance to change, unfinished business

5 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Five of Swords depicts one cat sitting next to three lavender stalks. He is staring down at another cat that has fallen on the ground alongside two lavender stalks. Under this stormy sky it appears a battle has been fought.

Upright- conflict, disagreements, defeat, winning at all costs

Reversed- reconciliation, making amends

4 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Four of Swords shows a cat resting on a floor. Behind him is a staircase that leads up towards the starry night. Four lavender stalks surround him, one lies beneath him and three above him pointing downwards towards his head and torso.

Upright- relaxation, meditation, contemplation

Reversed- exhaustion, deep contemplation

3 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Three of Swords shows a heart, floating under rain clouds, that has been pierced by three sharp lavender stalks.

Upright- emotional pain, grief, broken heart

Reversed- insecurity, dependence

2 of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

The Two of Swords shows a white blindfolded cat sitting under two crossed lavender stalks that are perfectly balanced. Water flows behind her. She appears to be calm, and thoughtful yet cannot see. What kind of situation is she in? She must use her senses, mind and heart to figure out a solution for what ails her.

Upright- difficult decisions, weighing options

Reversed- indecision, confusion, stalemate

Ace of Swords

Element: Air Astrology: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Ace of Swords shows a paw holding an upright lavender stalk over jagged mountains. At the top of the stalk is a crown and laurel wreath, symbols of victory and success.

Upright- new ideas, mental clarity, success

Reversed- inner clarity, clouded judgement

King of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The King of Pentacles sits atop a pentacle of flowers. Below him is a bull, showing he is connected to the astrological sign of Taurus. He is surrounded by vines and grapes, symbols of material success.

Upright- abundance, business leadership, prosperity, security

Reversed- stubborn, greed, indulgence

Queen of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Queen of Pentacles sits atop a pentacle of flowers wearing a crown of gold. She is surrounded by greenery, flower, and grapes, symbols of abundance, fertility and her connection to the earth.

Upright- practicality, nurturing, financial security

Reversed- self-centeredness, jealousy, smothering

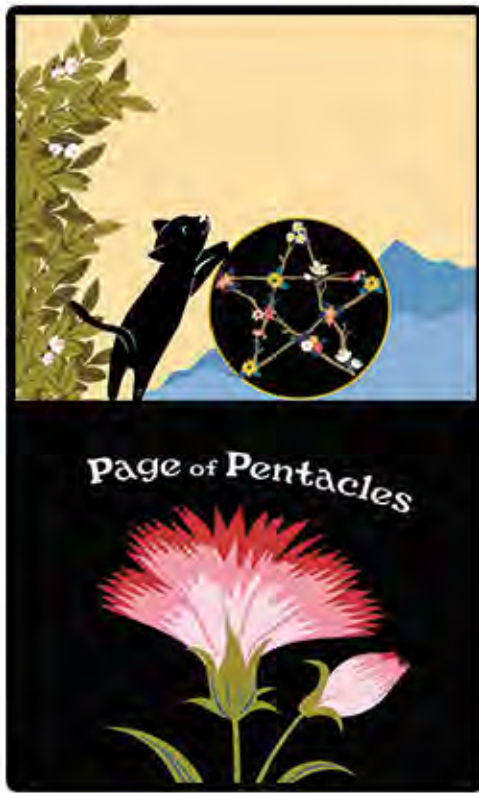

Knight of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Knight of Pentacles sits on his still horse next to a ploughed field. He focuses on the pentacle he is holding steady and dreaming of what's to come.

Upright- efficiency, hard work, responsibility

Reversed- self-discipline, obsessiveness, laziness

Page of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Page of Pentacles stands next to a lush flowering bush with a mountain range in the horizon. He doesn't notice his surroundings, his full attention is on the pentacles of flowers before him.

Upright- ambition, desire, opportunity, diligence

Reversed- lack of commitment, greediness, procrastination

10 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Ten of Pentacles shows an older cat surrounded by his family. He has a look of contentment on his face and feels good that he can share his abundance with his children and grandchildren.

Upright- legacy, family, culmination, wealth

Reversed- financial loss, lack of stability

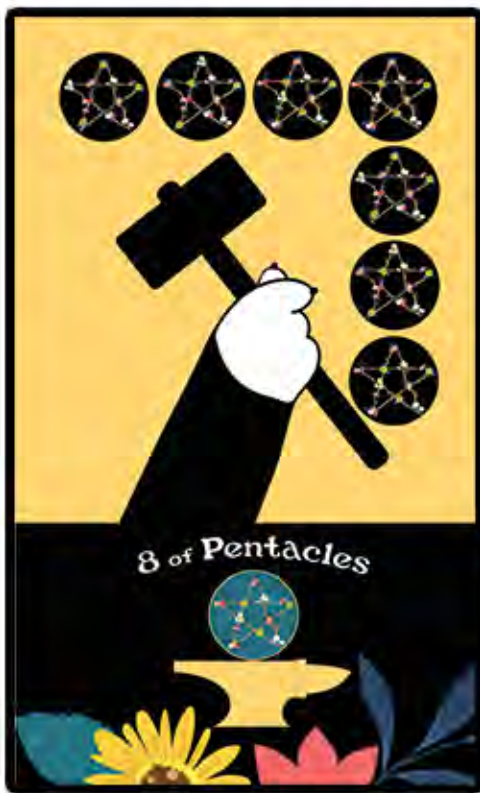

9 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Nine of Pentacles shows a beautiful cat adorned with flowers around her neck, she's surrounded by grapes. To her left a falcon calmly sits on her tail. The falcon and grapes are symbols of her success and wealth.

Upright- fruits of labor, rewards, financial independence

Reversed- living beyond means

8 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Eight of Pentacles shows a paw holding a hammer above an anvil where pentacle coins are being made.

Upright- apprenticeship, passion, high standards, mastery

Reversed- lack of passion, uninspired, unmotivated

7 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Seven of Pentacles shows a cat sitting in lush, flowering greenery, admiring the seven beautiful pentacles that have blossomed.

Upright- investment, hard work, perseverance

Reversed- distractions, lack of rewards, limited success.

6 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Six of Pentacles shows a paw dropping beautiful flowers that are falling towards a scale. The flowers are being given away, the already balanced scales represent fairness.

Upright- charity, generosity, sharing wealth

Reversed- stinginess, power, domination, unpaid debt

5 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Five of Pentacles depicts an injured, hungry, and tired cat walking past a church window that is emitting a warm light. The cat is so focused on his plight, he fails to see he could stop for help and keeps on walking instead.

Upright- need, poverty, insecurity, isolation

Reversed- loss of balance, disorganized, overwhelmed

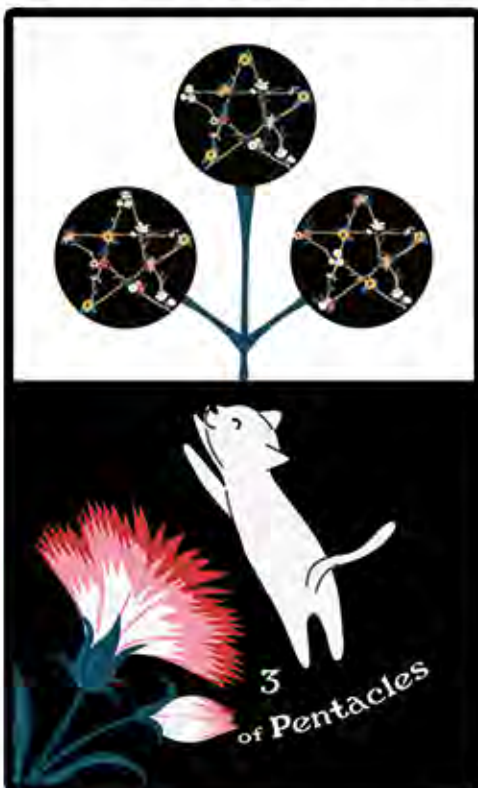

4 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Four of Pentacles shows a cat with his body protectively wrapped around his ball of gold yarn. He has two beautiful floral pentacles below him and balances two more, one on his head and one on his tail. He is so fixated on and attached to these items, he cannot move.

Upright- conservation, frugality, control, security

Reversed- greediness, stinginess, over spending

3 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Three of Pentacles shows a young cat dancing with joy around a pentacle tree. After being taught by the older cats, he has successfully grown three perfect, uniform floral pentacles.

Upright- collaboration, building, learning

Reversed- lack of teamwork, disorganized, disharmony

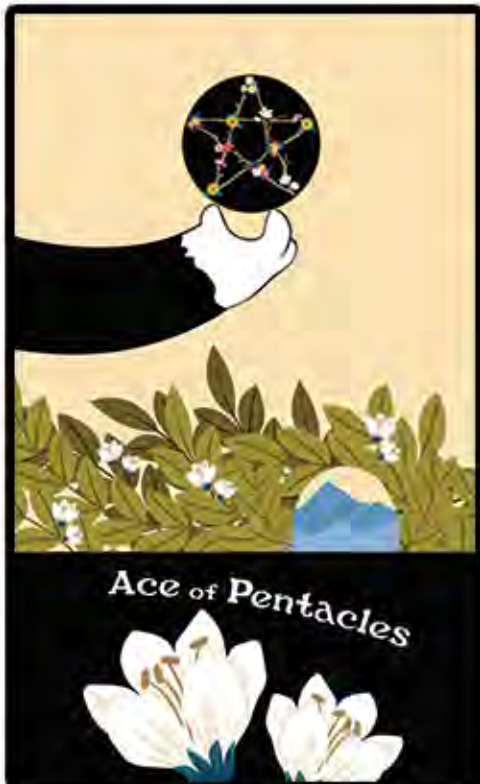

2 of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Two of Pentacles shows a cat on his back confidently juggling two pentacles on his foot and tail. The pentacles rest inside an infinity sign, a symbol that this cat can handle whatever comes his way in life. Below him, two ships sail the choppy seas but they manage to stay afloat.

Upright- balancing decisions, priorities, adapting to change

Reversed- loss of balance, disorganized, overwhelmed

Ace of Pentacles

Element: Earth Astrology: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

The Ace of Pentacles depicts a paw extended out holding a pentacle. It is being offered and is there for the taking. Below the pentacle is a flourishing bush with an opening in it. On the other side are mountains, and perhaps, great opportunities.

Upright- opportunity, prosperity, new venture

Reversed- lost opportunity, missed chance