

Avatar Legends RPG - Fan Created Tools License

I would like to create a VTT, online character sheet, digital game room, or other digital tools for Avatar Legends: The Roleplaying Game. What can I use and do I need permissions from Magpie Games, Avatar Studios, or Nickelodeon?

- You only use text from the play materials (playbooks, basic move sheets, etc.) that have been freely released by Magpie Games on our website.
- You do not use any images or layout elements to which you do not have explicit rights, including any images or graphics published in the Avatar Legends: The Roleplaying Game Core Book, Wan Shi Tong's Adventure Guide, any other supplements or materials released by Magpie Games, or any other Avatar Legends materials (screenshots, music, etc).
- You make the tools freely and openly accessible to the public without any payment requirements to access or use.
- You acknowledge that Viacom is the owner of the original content and any derivatives created with such content associated with these tools, including rules for game play, and publish the following copyright line in the materials: ©2023 Viacom International Inc. - You publish the following disclaimer with the materials: This digital tool has been created in keeping with the guidelines for fan-created digital tools provided by Magpie Games at www.magpiegames.com/avatarrpg.
