

KLIPPAN

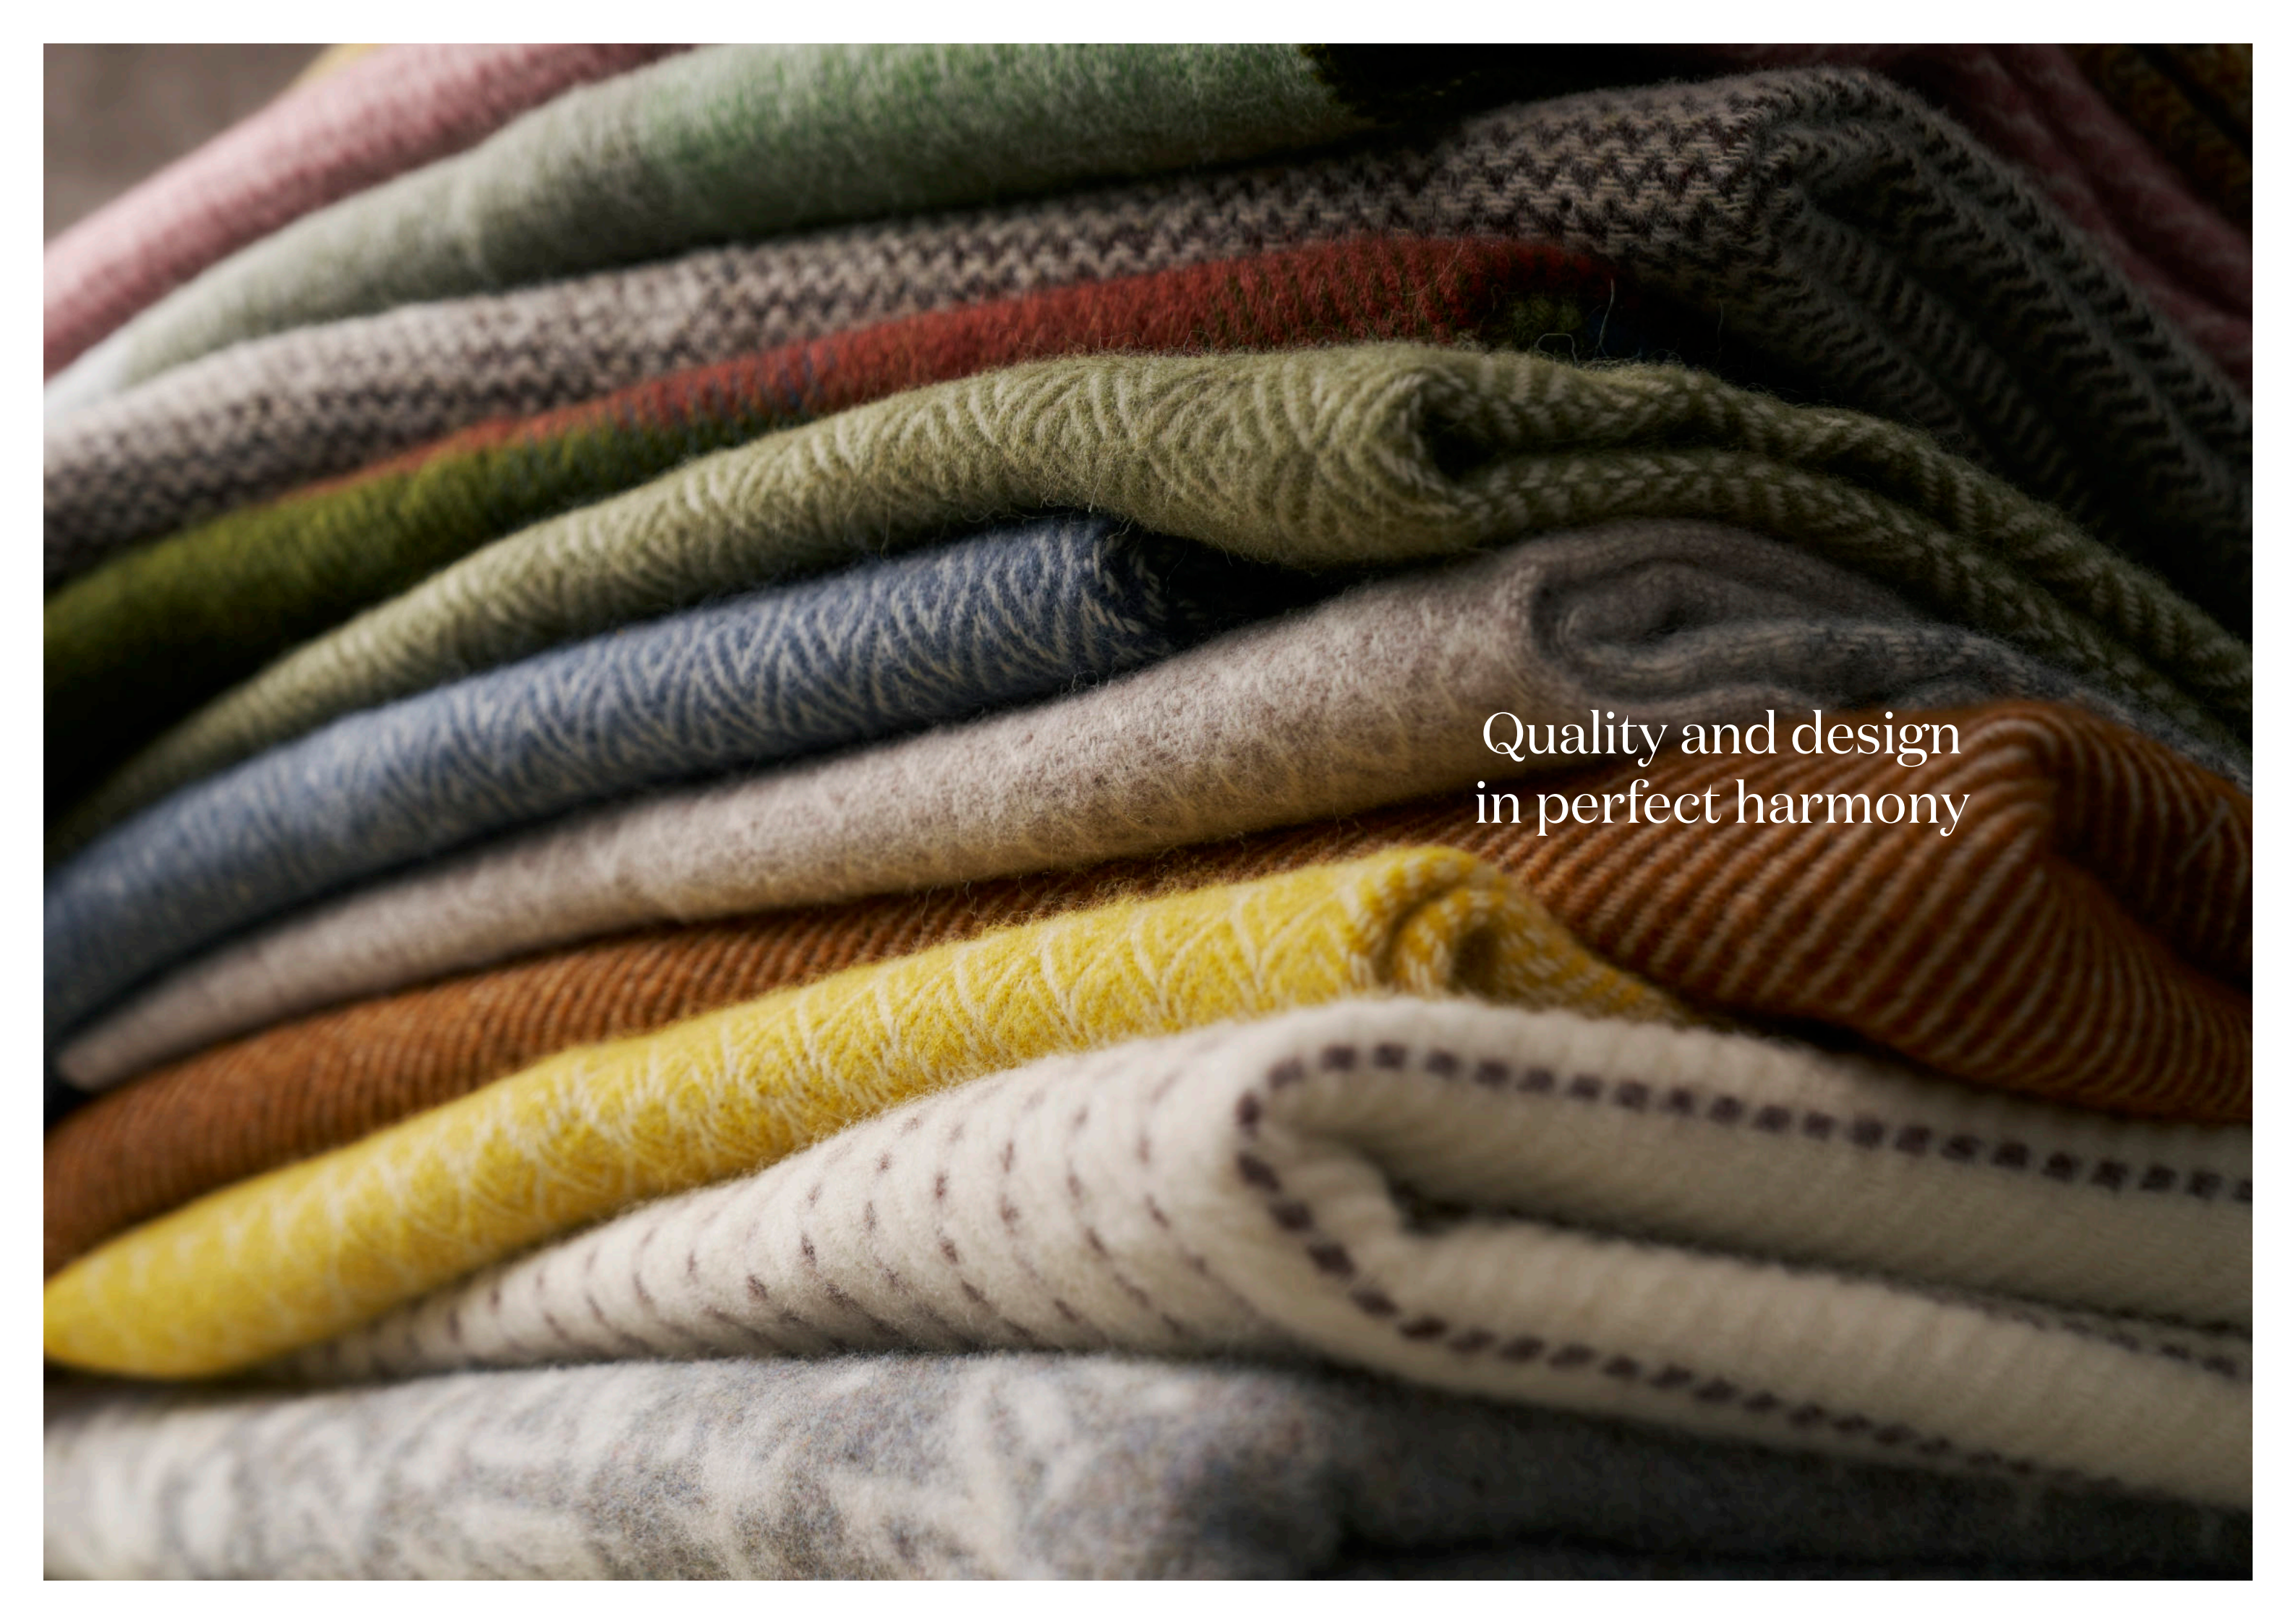

Since 1879

HOME 2023/24

Since 1879, we have been manufacturing high quality woolen products. We love wool, always have and always will. Why? Well, because wool is a wonderful renewable and 100% biodegradable fiber.

Quality and design in perfect harmony

Do you know which hands your products have passed through?
We do.

Our blankets are manufactured from start to finish in our own oeko-tex® certified factory.
We spin, dye and weave without intermediaries.

A blue and white patterned wool blanket is draped over a large, weathered log in a forest. The blanket features a repeating pattern of stylized evergreen trees and a small house. The background shows a stream flowing through a wooded area with fallen leaves on the ground.

A decade ago, Akira Minagawa designed House in the Forest.

This iconic wool blanket is loved by people all over the world.
