

ABOUT US

The FLIGHT SQUAD is the premier exhibition basketball team. Our players have showcased their pro-level skills on teams at locally and internationally.

We provide quality entertainment in a family-friendly environment that will inspire your community and patrons. Our goal and passion is to play a competitive basketball game against your best team. However, we also know that audiences often enjoy games that include former pro athletes, senior citizens and people with disabilities. Our events also aim to demonstrate the value of giving back to community, in an effort to do our part to inspire others to make the world a better place. The FLIGHT SQUAD is here to become a partner and work closely with your representatives to create a unique and innovative event that will highlight your efforts to achieve your business or fundraising goals.

WHY BOOK THE FLIGHT SQUAD?

Why book a game with us? Because a FLIGHT SQUAD basketball game is the perfect, unconventional fundraising event for corporations, non-profits, communities and schools. Your organization will profit from keeping ticket sales, concession sales and sponsorships. FLIGHT SQUAD represents diversity. Our team boasts both male and female players from all different backgrounds from all corners of the country. Through their example of discipline, self-confidence and teamwork, they are role models for younger audiences. A FLIGHT SQUAD game gives members in the community who may not have the resources or accessibility to attend an NBA game the opportunity to enjoy an afternoon or evening of a pro-level basketball game. We know that many people in different organizations and throughout the community have good (and not so good) basketball skills. Our games provide a great opportunity for them to test and show off their skills against our players. This event serves as a great recruiting tool to get people young and old involved in their community and your organization.

Finally, our superior customer service and attention to detail will insure your organization will enjoy your flying experience with us.
