CHICO COFFEE TABLE

JD-1048-02-0

Intersecting through material and form, The Chico Coffee Table's unique marble striations dance across the surface of its design, traced by the earth, adding intrinsic elements to any interior. Soft edges materialize through solid black marine marble, the segmented base taking shape with an angular cut from a rounded form. To keep its elemental essence pristine, please use a coaster on this black marble beauty.

Made of solid black marine marble.

Please note that due to the natural variances in marble, each table will vary in tone & vein markings.

Assembly required.
