MAGNITUDE VASE

COLORS: Multicolor

OVERVIEW

A journey through time, these vessels are handmade in the northern coastal city of Chulucanas, Peru using techniques dating back 1500 years. Each piece is individually formed, slip-decorated, then handburnished with a special stone to create a subtle luster. A distinct smokey scent lingers inside from the kiln fire it is born from. The Magnitude Vase comes in two sizes and is hand-painted with an abstract floral print referencing art nouveau, breathing the beauty of ancient forms into any living space.
