become reality. The universe is mind and it responds to our thoughts.

all things have masculine and feminine principles the principle of gender

Everything has it's masculine and feminine principles, active and passive energy.

every cause has it's effect every effect has it's cause

the principle of
cause and effect

Nothing happens by chance, everything happens for a reason, everything has a cause and effect.

The energy in the universe is like a pendulum, swaying back and forth, everything has it's cycles, it's ebb and flow.
