Company Overview

Laux Sporting Goods is one of the oldest suppliers of sports equipment, apparel, and athletic footwear in the United States. Established in 1921 by a semi-pro ballplayer, who started selling bats, gloves, and baseballs from his ice cream salon, Laux Sporting Goods has grown to become a national distributor of brand-name sporting goods and equipment. We serve teachers, coaches, athletic directors, program directors, and athletes around the US. We take great pride in providing the best customer service in the industry and having thousands of returning customers.

Core Competencies:
