PART A [40 Marks]

READING (20 marks)

1. Read the passage given below.

(1 × 10 = 10)

The choices we make on a daily basis—wearing a seatbelt, lifting heavy objects correctly or purposely staying out of any dangerous situation—can either ensure our safety or bring about potentially harmful circumstances.

You and I need to make a decision that we are going to get our lives in order. Exercising self-control, self-discipline and establishing boundaries and borders in our lives are some of the most important things we can do. A life without discipline is one that's filled with carelessness.

We can think it's kind of exciting to live life on the edge. We like the image of "Yeah! That's me! Living on the edge! Woo-hoo!" It's become a popular way to look at life. But if you see, even highways have lines, which provide margins for our safety while we're driving. If we go over one side, we'll go into the ditch. If we cross over the line in the middle, we could get killed. And we like those lines because they help to keep us safe. Sometimes we don't even realize how lines help to keep us safe.

I'm not proud of this, but for the first 20 years of my life at work, I ignored my limits. I felt horrible, physically, most of the time. I used to tell myself "I know I have limits and that I've reached them, but I'm going to ignore them and see if or how long I can get by with it." I ran to doctors, trying to make myself feel better through pills, vitamins, natural stuff and anything I could get my hands on. Some of the doctors would tell me, "It's just stress." That just made me mad. I thought stress meant you don't like what you do or can't handle life, and I love what I do. But I kept pushing myself, traveling, doing speaking engagements and so on— simply exhausting myself.

Finally, I understood I was living an unsustainable life and needed to make some changes in my outlook and lifestyle.

You and I don't have to be like everyone else or keep up with anyone else. Each of us needs to be exactly the way we are, and we don't have to apologize for it. We're not all alike and we need to find a comfort zone in which we can enjoy our lives instead of making ourselves sick with an overload of stress and pressure.

On the basis of your understanding of the passage, answer ANY TEN questions from the twelve that follow. (1 × 10 = 10)

The UN's 2017 International Year tells that sustainable tourism is an important tool for development, most importantly in poor communities and countries. Today sustainability – environmental, social, and economic – is increasingly recognised as the benchmark for all tourism business. As noted by the UN World Tourism Organisation, 57% of international tourist arrivals will be in emerging economies, by 2030. The various 'Tourism Terms' are defined as follows:

CATEGORY	DEFINITION
Ecotourism	Responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment, socially and economically sustains the well-being of local people, and creates knowledge and understanding through interpretation and education of all involved (including staff, travelers, and community residents). ⁴
Ethical Tourism	Tourism in a destination where ethical issues are the key driver, e.g. social injustice, human rights, animal welfare, or the environment. ⁵
Geotourism	Tourism that sustains or enhances the geographical character of a place - its environment, heritage, aesthetics, culture, and well-being of its residents. ⁶
Pro-Poor Tourism	Tourism that results in increased net benefit for the poor people in a destination. ⁷
Responsible Tourism	Tourism that maximizes the benefits to local communities, minimizes negative social or environmental impacts, and helps local people conserve fragile cultures and habitats or species. ⁸
Sustainable Tourism	Tourism that leads to the management of all resources in such a way that economic, social, and aesthetic needs can be fulfilled while maintaining cultural integrity, essential ecological processes, biological diversity, and life-support systems. ⁸

Based on data collected by a survey by Travel Bureau, the following market profile of an ecotourist was constructed:

- Age: 35 - 54 years old, although age varied with activity and other factors such as cost.
- Gender: 50% female and 50% male, although clear differences based on activity were found.
- Education: 82% were college graduates, a shift in interest in ecotourism from those who have high levels of education to those with less education was also found, indicating an expansion into mainstream markets.
- Household composition: No major differences were found between general tourists and experienced ecotourists

Party composition: A majority (60%) of experienced ecotourism respondents stated they prefer to travel as a couple, with only 15% stating they preferred to travel with their families, and 13% preferring to travel alone. ( experienced ecotourists = Tourists that had been on at least one “ecotourism” oriented trip.)

Trip duration: The largest group of experienced ecotourists- (50%) preferred trips lasting 8-14 days.

Expenditure: Experienced ecotourists were willing to spend more than general tourists, the largest group (26%).

Important elements of trip: Experienced ecotourists top three responses were: (a) wilderness setting, (b) wildlife viewing, (c) hiking/trekking.

Motivations for taking next trip: Experienced ecotourists top two responses were (a) enjoy scenery/nature, (b) new experiences/places.

 The Station House officer
 Satya Nagar Police Station
 Bhubaneswar, Orissa

Subject: Complaint Against Flouters of Quarantine Rules

Sir,

Through this letter of mine, I would like to draw your attention towards some residents of our colony who are repeatedly flouting quarantine rules which have been laid out during the outbreak of COVID 19 pandemic.

There is an evident disregard to the rules of social distancing. Many people are roaming without masks in the colony and do not stay indoors. Despite repeated requests, they are turning a deaf ear to all the appeals. The RWA is also not taking any steps to prevent such behavior. It is a matter of great concern as they are putting everyone's life at great risk through their casual behavior. It aggravates mental stress also.

I request you to look into the matter at the earliest. I earnestly hope that you will take immediate action against these people. I hope for a positive response from your end.

Thank you.

Your Sincerely

Subject: Request for home Delivery of Books.

Sir,

This is with reference to the order placed telephonically on 9 October '20 by me for some reference books, registers, oil pastels, and brushes, I had informed you that I would pick up the goods of the placed order in person.

But through this letter, I request you to make arrangements for the home delivery of ordered goods. Actually, an emergency meeting has been called by our organisation and I have to leave for Mumbai for one week tonight only. I would really be grateful if you deliver the ordered goods at the address stated above.

Thank you.

Detailed Answer:Ban On Plastic

Single use plastic causes more harm to the environment than benefitting it. Its toxic contents are harmful for all whether they are human beings, animals or marine creatures. In fact they cause a decline in the healthy state of those also who produce it as it leads to many illnesses. The government has decided to put a blanket ban on single-use plastic articles which is a wise step. It is going to be helpful for our environment which is in a declining state everyone must join in this campaign to save our planet and to make it pollution free. More of environment friendly products should be used. The ban on these products is not impractical. There is no denying the fact that these products make our life easier but we should come up for the welfare of all and not be selfish. The ban will be useful in the long run.

- Poem written to turn the joke around on Mr. Keesing; metaphorically convey the value of talking
- fortunate that Mr. Keesing got the joke, else, the disciplinary action could have been severe.

[CBSE Marking Scheme, 2020]

Detailed Answer:

Anne feels that it was fortunate that Mr. Keesing took the joke the right way because she had written a poem which was an allusion to Mr. Keesing. It had actually been written to turn the joke around on Mr. Keesing who could have taken it the other way also. She had written a poem referring to a father swan who bit his three ducks because they quake too much. The message was conveyed metaphorically. Had Mr. Keesing taken it the other way round, the disciplinary action could have been severe.

(ii) – Poem discusses the way the world can end.

- Fire stands for greed/lust/human desire; Ice stands for hatred/ coldness/human indifference;
- world can end with either greed or indifference

[CBSE Marking Scheme, 2020]

Detailed Answer:

The use of symbolism in the poem 'Fire and Ice' conveys the poems, the poet has compared fire to the dark side of humanity i.e., hatredness and lust. According to the poet lust is a greater evil. Desire or lust the cause of war. Hatredness is also harmful. So, the poem 'Fire and Ice' represents the two evils hatredness and lust which lead to the destruction of the world. According to the poet fire stands for desire, greed and avarice. The more you try to satisfy them, the more they grow. There is no end to it. They spread rapidly like fire and ruin your whole life. On the other had, 'ice' according to the poet, stands for hatred, coldness and rigidity. One becomes insensitive and indifferent towards the feelings of others. One becomes selfish and sometimes cruel also. The poet say that both fire and ice are growing with such a rapid speed that the world would soon perish either way, in fire or in ice.

- (B) (i) – Brilliant scientist (give example)
- he was a lawless person, he was disliked by most people, was quick tempered, burnt the house of the landlord to take a revenge on him, stole money at priest's house, (any other trait that reveals his darker side)
 - undoubtedly brilliant but his brilliance eclipsed by his negative traits.

[CBSE Marking Scheme, 2020]

Detailed Answer:

Griffin was brilliant scientist who experimented to prove that human body could become invisible. No one can deny that a true scientist works for the good of humanity. He wants to make man's life easier, more comfortable and enjoyable. He doesn't misuse his discoveries for personal gains or selfish ends. But Griffin, Though a brilliant scientist, misuses his discovery to puzzle people, enters stores and shops unseen, robs people of their money or things and escapes. He set fire to the house of his landlord. He steals food, sweets, wine, etc. It shows that the misuse of a scientific discovery can disturb the peace of society. Such a scientist will use his invention for self-interest and for taking revenge upon the people around him, he won't honour the law and thus will become a lawless person. He was undoubtedly brilliant but his brilliance was eclipsed by his negative traits.

Madame Forestier exclaimed in astonishment when she saw Matilda after a long gap because of the change in her physical appearance. Matilda had to work very hard to lead her life. She had become a strong, hard woman, the crude woman of the household. In fact, she had started looking old. One Sunday evening, when she was taking a walk in the Champs Elysees, she met Mrs. Forestier who still looked young and pretty. As Matilda had started looking old and haggard, she couldn't be recognized by her. It was difficult to recognize her as she was no longer the same pretty woman who had attended the minister's ball.

- not satisfied

(1 × 5 = 5 marks)

[CBSE Marking Scheme, 2020]

Detailed Answer:

Both Lencho and the pilot of the Dakola plane needed help and there is no doubt that both of them received the help too. But still there is a lot of difference between the help received by both of them.

In 'The Black Aeroplane' the pilot was caught in the storm and it was difficult to come out of it. But suddenly, out of nowhere, a black aeroplane appeared and helped him come out of the storm. The black aeroplane was without lights but it steered the pilot through the dark clouds. He landed at an airport. He was so happy. He decided to thank the pilot of that mysterious aeroplane but was told by the lady in the control room that there was no other aeroplane in the air other than his. It is a mystery which was not resolved. The only thing was that he received an unexpected help and was thankful for it.

On the other hand in A letter to God, Lencho was needed help in the form of pesos to look after his family. He wrote a letter to God and asked for hundred pesos. His conviction touched the postmaster who raised money from his staff and sent it to Lencho. In this case, Lencho received help as he had asked for it. The source of his aid has clearly been revealed whereas it was not revealed in the case of pilot unlike the pilot in 'The Black Aeroplane', Lencho is not happy and satisfied with the help that he had received.

Detailed Answer:

The journey of Bholi from a 'dumb cow' to a master piece' clearly showcases the idea of being an individual and not being exploited by people or circumstances Bholi, the youngest family, was slow for her age. She stammered when she spoke, she had pock marks on her face and above all, her own family neglected her. She was taken as a burden. She had lost her a child with submissive demeanour. She had lost her self-esteem but later regained it when she started going to school. Her teacher's guidance and education motivated her. Finally, she overcame her stammering which consequently instilled her confidence. She did not succumb to the greedy demands of the prospective groom and spoke out. She emerged as a polished piece of gem.
