Black Tea Collection - Origins and Blends

Our Black Tea Collection uses the finest black teas available to create the classic tea recipes that tea drinkers have become accustomed to and seek.

	ASSAM	Assam GFOP tea is cultivated on the banks of Brahmapoutre in India. The greenhouse effect created by the region's abundant rain produces teas classified among the best in the world. This tea has character and is rich in golden buds.
	DARJEELING THURBO	A high-grown black tea from North India with a clear, sparkling taste and a light aroma, Darjeeling Thurbo is of the highest quality grade, FTGFOP, meaning Finest Tippy Golden Flowery Orange Pekoe.
	ENGLISH BREAKFAST	This English Breakfast blend is a marriage of specially chosen teas from Ceylon and India, using cut leaves for a strong and satisfying taste.
	KEEMUN	Whole tea leaves, nicely rolled and prepared with much care, produce a red and sparkling drink, with a slight chocolaty flavour and a nice orchid fragrance.
	KEEMUN SUPERIOR	A high altitude tea from the province of Andhui. Keemun Superior has small, brow-shaped ebony leaves that produce a lustrous red liquor. This tea has subtle and slightly smoky aroma.
	KENYA MILIMA ESTATE	Composed of non uniform leaves and golden tips, this tea is considered Kenya's finest and most elegant. Can be compared to the finest Assam teas. Produces a bright liquor that is mellow and light in body.
	LASPANG SOUCHONG	With its full, long, twisted leaves, this classic tea has a strong, round aroma. To absorb a smoky flavour, the leaves are kept close to burning Chinese pine wood or cypress during preparation.
	NILGIRI	This black tea from southwest India is cultivated at altitudes of 1000 to 2500 meters above sea level. It creates a brilliantly refined tea liquor, with a round body.
	ORANGE PEKOE KEPPETIPOLA	Grown at about 1000 meters above sea level, this tea is known for its delicate aroma and great taste.
	ORANGE PEKOE DIMBULA	The best Dimbulas, such as this one, are picked during the dry season (January and February). A black tea made of long twisted leaves; its full-bodied infusion gives a dark and very aromatic drink.
	ORANGE PEKOE PETTIAGALLA	A black tea well known for its long, wiry leaves, the Pettiagalla is cultivated at an altitude of approximately 1000 meters above sea level, in the region of Balangoda. Its infusion is exquisite and very aromatic.
	PU ERH SUPERIOR	Pu Erh is cultivated in Xishuangbanna, fermented twice and aged. Its dark brown infusion offers a flowery, sweet aroma and powerful earthy taste. Pu Erh also aids digestion and lowers cholesterol.
	RUSSIAN CARAVAN	Russian Caravan, a specialty of Fujian province, is a blend of slightly smoked Chinese and Keemun black teas. With its strong smoky taste, it marries very well with milk.
	SZECHWAN	Szechwan tea has thin, golden-tipped leaves that produce a dark red liquor. Its almost-sweet bouquet and smooth texture give it its distinction.
	YUNNAN GOLDEN PEKOE	This exquisite tea is produced in very limited quantity each year and boasts a superb burnished gold liquor. A rich, smooth, malty tea, less earthy than most Yunnans, with a firm astringent finish.

Black Tea Collection - Flavoured

	ARCTIC FIRE	This blend of Chinese and Ceylon black teas is enhanced with tropical flavours, cornflower and sunflower petals.

	PEACHES & CREAM	Chinese and Ceylon black teas enjoy a smooth hint of cream, swirled in with delicious peach flavour and an added touch of rose and chamomile petals.
	ROYAL FRUIT	This blend of Chinese and Ceylon black teas is splashed with strawberry, cherry and blackberry flavours, then decorated with a touch of dried apple bits and rosehip petals.
	STRAWBERRY FIELDS	Summery strawberry essence contrasts beautifully with bold Chinese and Ceylon black teas, strawberry bits and rose petals.
	SWEET SPICY CHAI	Chinese and Ceylon black teas mixed in with chai spices, then sprinkled with safflower petals.
	VANILLA BEAN	Chopped vanilla beans bring a sweet touch to the bold notes of Chinese and Ceylon black teas and are accompanied by a bouquet of chrysanthemum and candied violets.
	VANILLA NUT	Chinese and Ceylon black teas combined with vanilla and macadamia nut flavours and an added touch of almond bits to create this tea's memorable taste!
	WILD CHERRY	The bold flavours of Chinese and Ceylon black teas are flavoured with sweet, tart cherry essence, then topped with mountain berries and pomegranate petals to create a deliciously scented finish.
	WILD RASPBERRY	Chinese and Ceylon black teas come together with raspberry fruit mix and hibiscus petals to create this blend's intense flavour.

Green Tea Collection - Origins and Blends

Our Green Tea Collection responds to the consumer's desire for enhanced well-being through natural products.

	ASSAM FATICHERA DECAF.	During the abundant and irregular rain season, a green house effect created in the atmosphere produces some of the world's best teas. Cultivated on the banks of Brahmapoutre, this Assam has a lot of character!
	BANCHA (CHINESE)	This Bancha originates from China and is known to have low caffeine content and be rich in catechin content. Slightly more astringent than the Japanese version.
	BANCHA (JAPANESE)	Originating from ancient Japan, Bancha is low in caffeine and has a rich catechin content which is said to be effective in reducing body fat. Its flavour is fresh and light.
	CHUN MEE	Chun Mee is a classic tea, named after its eyebrow shaped leaves. Its infusion provides a very mild and pleasant taste.
	GENMAICHA	Green Japanese Bancha leaves, mixed with Genmai hulled rice kernels and corn, produce a slightly salty, light-brown colored tea.
	GUNPOWDER TEMPLE OF HEAVEN	This superior-quality Chinese green tea with a distinct texture is found in Pingshui and neighbouring cities. Its leaves are rolled in the shape of small pellets, which once infused, offer a sharp and refreshing taste.
	HOJICHA	Hojicha is composed of roasted Japanese Bancha leaves that are steamed, dried with hot air and rolled. Its liquor is brownish in color, with caramel and woody notes. It is also low in caffeine.
	JASMINE FLOWERS	Jasmine flowers are picked and kept in a cool place. Tea leaves are then placed nearby for 4 hours to absorb the flowers' aroma in order to create a delicate, well-balanced taste.
	JASMINE PEARLS	These superior-quality Chinese green tea leaves rolled with fine jasmine buds create an exquisite taste. Watch the pearls unfurl as you steep them—pleasing to the eyes, nose and palate!
	KOKEICHA	Its tea leaves are steamed and ground between two granite wheels. Water is added to the resulting powder and the mixture is then dried into pine needle-like form. Kokeicha offers a soft, slightly bitter and aromatic taste.
	MATCHA #40	This Matcha # 40 is often used to season foods. Cultivated in the Nishio-Aichi prefecture, its leaves are finely chopped and reduced to a powder with the help of a stone grinder.
	SENCHA ASAMUSHI NO.20	This Sencha evokes the rows of cherry blossom trees that colour Japan's four seasons. The young tea buds, carefully picked from June to July in the deep mountainous area of Shizuoka, create a beautifully balanced bittersweet tea.
	CHINESE SENCHA (PANFIRE)	This Chinese green tea is cooked in a saucepan immediately after the harvest, to stop its leaves from oxidizing as well as to produce its classic taste.

Green Tea Collection - Flavoured

	ALMOND CRUMBLE	Chinese Sencha combined with sweet almond essence and almond bits create a sublime cup of tea.
	APRICOT PLEASURE	Chinese Sencha tea is blended with delicious apricot flavour, then combined with sunflower petals, chrysanthemum flowers and dried mango bits.
	ARCTIC FIRE	Chinese Sencha green tea is enhanced with tropical flavours, cornflower and sunflower petals.
	BLUEBERRY, POMEGRANATE & VIOLETS	Mild chinese Sencha green tea gets a fruity kick with blueberry and pomegranate essences, layered with the richness of whole blueberries and candied violets.
	CHINESE CHERRY GARDEN	The fresh flavour of chinese Sencha green tea and sweet, tart cherry essence, sprinkled with mountain berries and pomegranate petals for a taste of spring!
	CLASSIC EARL GREY	Smooth chinese Sencha green tea comes together with authentic spicy bergamot oil and is amplified by cornflowers.
	LADY IN BLUE (CHINESE)	Chinese Sencha green tea is blended with grapefruit and avocado flavours, then sprinkled with pomegranate and sunflower petals.
	LEMON GINGER	Gentle chinese Sencha green tea provides the perfect counterpoint to the zing of ginger and lemon.
	LEMON SUBLIME	Chinese Sencha green tea splashed with lemon and lime essences and stirred in with crispy lemon bits and orange zest for a fresh citrus blend that's simply sublime!
	MOROCCAN MADNESS	The fresh fragrance of spearmint essence and spearmint leaves complements the strong, smoky-sweet flavour of chinese Gunpowder tea.
	PEPPERMINT	This chinese Sencha green tea is complemented by rich peppermint flavour and fresh peppermint leaves.
	STRAWBERRY FIELDS	Summery strawberry essence harmonizes with mellow chinese Sencha green tea, strawberry bits and rose petals.
	VANILLA BEAN	Chopped vanilla beans bring a sweet touch to the chinese Sencha green tea along with chrysanthemum.
	ZESTY ORANGE	Chinese Sencha green tea paired with orange flavour and zest along with lemon balm leaves to create this teas delicious tangy taste!

Oolong Tea Collection - Origins

Our Oolong Tea Collection is ideal for your consumers seeking a healthy alternative while still enjoying the taste and effects of tea.

	GINSENG	It's believed that Ginseng has rejuvenating powers and provides stimulation to the entire body. Its root is known to help counter inflammation, fever and fatigue. Delicious when sweetened with a little honey.
	MILKY OOLONG	This Taiwanese tea produces a sweet and milky aroma. Its characteristics come from sudden climatic changes in the region where it's grown. In spite of its name, it contains no dairy products.
	SHUI HSIEN	The Shui Hsien leaves are exposed to intense oxidation and roasted for long periods of time. This process produces a strong-flavoured tea with a light, honey aftertaste. It is traditionally cultivated on Mount Wu Yi in Fujian.

White Tea Collection - Origin

Our White Tea Collection offers the perfect match of gentle tea leaves with subtle tastes of fruits and flower petals.

	PAI MU TAN	Pai Mu Tan is a rare white tea made of very fine, silky leaves mixed with small buds. The tea leaves are first steamed and then dried. It produces a fresh and very mild infusion.

Spa Collection - Origins

Our innovative wellness Spa Collection uses the select herbal, fruit and spices to create a collection of naturally sweetened caffeine-free, no calories beverages.

	CHAMOMILE FLOWERS	Chamomile is one of the most widely used herbs for its calming properties. It is an anti-inflammatory that encourages digestion and boosts the immune system. Its taste is sweet and herbaceous.
	HONEYBUSH	Indigenous to the cape of South Africa, Honeybush is used to make medicinal tea and as a substitute for regular tea. It has a pleasant, mildly sweet taste and honey-like aroma. It is also naturally caffeine free.
	ROOIBOS (RED)	This caffeine-free, South African red herbal tea is from the Aspalathus Lionaris plant. Its red liquor resembles tea, and is rich in vitamin C and antioxidants.
	ROOIBOS (GREEN)	Contrary to the popular red Rooibos, this green Rooibos is un-oxidized thus boosting the levels of antioxidants. This naturally non-caffeinated shrub is solely cultivated in the region of Cederberg.
	YERBA MATE	This rich in vitamin C, South American herbal tea, was once used by the Incas for virtues that stimulated physical and intellectual health. It also provided them with a quenching and bitter drink.

Spa Collection - Flavoured

	CARIBBEAN DREAMS	Rooibos herbal tea dallies with our tropical flavours, while safflower and dried carrot pieces brighten the day and crispy lemon and passionfruit add a burst of sweetness and sun.
	FOUR FRUITS	Sweet and earthy Honeybush takes up with our four-fruit flavour blend and invites whole blueberries, strawberry pieces and mountain berries to come join the fun.
	RUBY RED	Honeybush herbal tea enjoys a sweet moment with the essence of strawberry; cranberry and pomegranate add a tart twist, topped with dried strawberry.
	STRAWBERRY MELON	Honeybush herbal tea blends happily with the sweet essences of honeydew and strawberry to create this summery splash.
	GRANNY'S GARDEN	A real fruit infusion, this combination of strawberries and rhubarb produces a naturally sweet drink that releases an aroma reminiscent of granny's garden.
	MANGO FLIP	This mango infusion produces a juicy, tropical and naturally sweet drink.
	SUMMER BREEZE	A real fruit infusion, this combination of raspberries and cherries produces a fresh, aromatic and naturally sweet drink.
