Marie Claire's edit of the best things to buy, browse and book

Allow us to introduce: hot list. Whether it's some much-needed pampering, a quick interiors update, a cool event to book tickets for or a wardrobe refresh, here's Marie Claire's edit of the best ways to indulge.

Here at Marie Claire HQ we're constantly seeking out secret sales, new brands, fun events, exclusive beauty treatments and cool coffee table books. We also love updating our home with a cool new piece of pottery, art or a delicious new candle.

This week we're loving:

Florence St. George

As the Founder and designer at her eponymous luxury pottery label, Florence spends half her time in the Bahamas where she creates pieces that are inspired by the ocean, coastal life and natural forms. Finding the process of working with clay to be a form of therapy and an effective creative output, Florence also leads a group of special needs children to use sculpture as a way of expressing themselves using clay sourced locally.
