

THE SUNDAY TIMES

STYLE

19 DECEMBER 2021

Introducing
TEMS

THE MUSIC STAR THE A-LIST LOVE

PLUS

OH, YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE!
THE POLITICS OF REGIFTING BY INDIA KNIGHT

SECRETS OF A CELEBRITY PERFUME ADDICT
WHAT'S ON ELTON'S BATHROOM SHELF?

Shop with Style

What our editor Laura Atkinson loves this week

LET'S GO OUTSIDE

Yes, yes, I'm all about the party dresses at this time of year, but whisper it you're more likely to find me in a puffer jacket. This A-line version in red feels a bit more fun than classic black and you can rely on Hunter to keep you warm and dry. £195; hunterboots.com

SNOW QUEEN

Whether you're in the mountains or just braving the British weather, Giorgio Armani's Neve (it means snow in Italian) collection will keep the cold away. These leather gloves are top of my winter wish list. £490; armani.com

BRIGHT EYES

Puffy eyes? Dark circles? Sorry, did someone say 'December'? This serum promises to brighten, and the snazzy applicator wins me over. Dior Prestige Le Micro-Sérum de Rose Yeux, £154; fenwick.co.uk

BEACH LIFE

The ceramicist Florence St George is known for her homeware inspired by the coastline of the Bahamas, where she lives. This bowl will spark joy wherever you put it. The Conch bowl, £185; florencestgeorge.com

SHOP WITH STYLE

10 stylish things to buy now

A perfect puffer, the new name in footwear and kidswear to rent: what our editor loves this week

Laura Atkinson | Sunday December 19 2021, 12.01am, The Sunday Times

Welcome to Shop with Style, where you will find the most stylish buys every week for your shopping pleasure. The Style team will sift through all the latest drops so you don't have to, curating a covetable selection of high street must-haves, under-the-radar beauty brands and unique homeware pieces. Go on, treat yourself.

3. Beach life

The ceramicist Florence St George is known for her homeware inspired by the coastline of the Bahamas, where she lives. This bowl will spark joy wherever you put it. The Conch bowl, £185; florencestgeorge.com