Signature notebooks for special travellers

And here's a collection of fascinating design notebooks that are dedicated to these cities. Cities that are the great performance stages of life. Our ideal travelers are thoughtful, creative, curious, on the move. CityDiaries are for them.

These signature notebooks are collectors of memories, impressions, notes that reveal - over time - your relationship with the city, the thoughts those places aroused, the discoveries you made.

We are the ones who focus on cities.

The designer Marti Guixè has drawn the essential shape of 10 cities, capturing their unique and unrepeatable character with a few key signs. Our traveler will tune his gaze and his notes to the character of one specific city and he will make it is own.
