

Tips for the player

First

Do the word games when you feel most concentrated.

We recommend playing them in the morning. Make sure you are sitting comfortably, in a quiet, and well-lit place.

Next

Choose the types of games you like the most, to begin with. There is no order to the games.

Read the instructions for each game out loud.

No rush or timer, you have plenty of time to finish them.

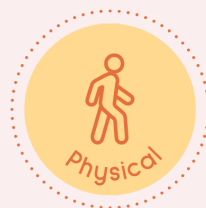

Ask for help if needed.

Tips for the caregiver

- ✓ Do not hesitate to help and if your loved one does not want to do the activity, sit down together and begin it... and he/she'll join you!
- ✓ If it seems too complicated, you can hide a part of the game to make it easier to focus on one thing at a time. For example, just show one word to find in the list of the hidden words, or just a line of the missing numbers series...
- ✓ Use the material to start a conversation:
 - What is your favorite cake, sport, athlete, or animal?
 - In the family, who is the best baker, the most sportive? ..etc...
 - Share memories about the most fantastic cake you baked or bought, the greatest sporting feat achieved or watched on TV, the name of the pets you have/had at home...

Gleam in Your Eye designs fun and intuitive activities to sustain cognitive abilities.
