RoHS Compliancy Statement

It is the belief of Desco Industries, Inc. that all Desco Industries products fall outside the scope of the 2002/95/EC and 2002/96/EC directives, except for the Menda Vacuums, which do comply with the requirements of these directives.

All other Desco Industries items fall outside the scope of the directives.

Eight RoHS categories:

- Large household appliances
- Small household appliances
- IT & telecommunications equipment
- Consumer equipment
- Lighting equipment
- Electrical & electronic tools
- Toys, leisure and sports equipment
- Automatic dispensers
- Electric light bulbs & household luminaries

The European directives are to control hazardous substances (RoHS Reduction of Hazardous Substances) in electrical & electronic tools. A Desco ESD shielding bag is not an electrical or electronic tool. It "is not dependent on electrical currents".

Specifically regarding Desco ESD Shielding Bags, none of the following materials are intentionally added in manufacturing:

- Asbestos, asbestos compounds
- Chlorofluorocarbons and halons (Class I and II Ozone Depleting Chemicals)
- Ethylene Glycol Monomethyl Ether and its acetate
- Ethylene Glycol Monoethyl Ether and its acetate
- Polybrominated biphenyls (PBBs) and derivatives including biphenyl ethers (PBDEs) or biphenyl oxides (PBDOs)
- Polychlorobiphenyls and derivatives (PCBs)
- Polychloroterphenyls and derivatives (PCTs)
- Cadmium and cadmium compounds
- Chromium (VI) compounds
- Lead and lead compounds (including lead acetate, lead nitrate, lead sulfate)
- Mercury and mercury compounds
- Halogenated dioxins and furans
- Azo Dyes
- Pb in cable jackets

See Desco Limited warranty at <http://www.desco.com/Warranty.aspx> which states in part: Desco's only obligation shall be to replace such quantity of the product proved to be defective. Desco shall not be liable for any injury, loss, or damage, direct or consequential, arising out of the use of or the inability to use the product. Before using, users shall determine the suitability of the product for their intended use, and users assume all risk and liability whatsoever in connection therewith.
