IMPORTANT: Your return shipment must always be sent with distribution – regardless of the choice of carrier. We cannot accept returns delivered to parcel shops or other collection points than the address above. We always recommend that you secure a receipt as proof of sending the package – just to be on the safe side in case it gets lost on its way. You are responsible for your return shipment until we have received it. You have a 14-day right of return on goods that are in the same condition as when received. If this is not the case, we reserve the right to reject your return.
